WIGGINS IN RACE THROUGH CHASE

By Marion Brennan

TOUR de France winner Bradley Wiggins and world road champion Mark Cavendish are to race through Staffordshire.

The pair will be part of Team Sky's line-up for next month's Tour of Britain.

They will race through Stone, Stafford, Brocton, Cannock Chase, Rugeley and Blithfield before heading north of the county on the 92-mile Staffordshire stage.

Thousands of fans are expected to line the route on September 13, bringing a boost to the region's economy.

It will be Wiggins's return to competitive action less than a month after adding an Olympic gold medal to his historic yellow jersey win.

The 32-year-old has been given extra time off by Team Sky following his hugely successful summer and is not taking part in this week's Tour of Denmark as originally planned.

Cavendish, the first British rider to win the green jersey in the Tour de France, was a two-stage winner in last year's race.

Boost

The cyclists are expected to ride through Stone at 10.54am, reaching the glacial boulder near Chase Road, Brocton, part of Cannock Chase, at 11.22am.

Members of Stafford Road Club will help to marshal the event on the fifth day of the eight-stage race.

President Reg Pearce said local traders would enjoy a boost due to the amount of people flooding in to watch.

He said: "Although both have taken part in the tour in previous years, this time it will be on the back of their enormous recent successes.

"We are expecting crowds to line the route several people deep to honour their achievements."

Gold medallist Wiggins

He said the club's own membership had doubled in the past two or three years inspired by the ascendency of British cyclists.

Tour director Mick Bennett said: "To have the reigning Tour de France and Olympic time trial champion, and the current world champion competing in The Tour of Britain is a dream for us."

Cafe's decor makes the news

Next to a wall decorated in images of the Express and Star, owner Sue Wright, at the Hollybush cafeteria

TODAY'S newspaper used to be tomorrow's chip paper, so the saying goes, but now it could become the next big thing in interior design.

The owner of a popular Staffordshire restaurant has dreamed up a quirky new use for her favourite daily journal.

Sue Wright, who runs the revamped cafeteria at the Hollybush Garden Centre in Cheslyn Hay, has covered two walls from floor to ceiling in Express & Star front pages going back almost half a century. The scoops range from national stories like the wedding of Prince Charles and Lady Diana in 1981 to local tales, including the varying fortunes of Wolves.

Diners

Sue, who has been based at the Warstone Road nursery for 27 years, says the wall has given diners plenty to talk about.

"It's caused a lot of interest," she said. "You can see people reading the headlines as they sit and chat. I'd seen it done at East Midlands Airport when I was returning from holiday and I thought it would look great in the restaurant using our own local newspaper."

Sue spent hours poring over archive copies at the Star's head office in Queen Street, Wolverhampton, before deciding which she wanted.

The newsprint wallpaper is part of the new expanded 380-seater restaurant which replaced the former coffee shop.

Closure of roads to allow for flame

SOME roads in Cannock will be temporarily closed this weekend as the town welcomes the Paralympic Flame. Cannock Chase is one of only four locations in the West Midlands to host the celebration.

The Paralympic Flame will leave Cannock town centre, from the bandstand by the bowling green, at about 11.45am and will be carried along High Green and Park Road before entering Cannock Park on its way to Chase Leisure Centre.

Some roads will be closed to traffic for about an hour from 11.45am until after the Flame relay has taken place.

Blind

High Green, including Manor Avenue, will be closed, while Park Road will be shut at the island with New Penkridge Road and Dartmouth Road and also at the junction with the A34. Access for buses into Stafford Road will be maintained.

The relay will be started by Cannock Chase's Paralympic Flame Ambassador Olivia Wilson, a blind 14-year-old horse rider tipped top represent GB in 2016.

There will be a ceremony at Chase Leisure Centre to welcome the Paralympic Flame – with special guest Olympian Dave Moorcroft – and then a fun afternoon of sport.

Home after plane delay

A CANNOCK man was among those stranded abroad for more than two days because of a fault with their aeroplane.

Dennis Law, aged 41, was among the holidaymakers from Staffordshire and the Black Country that were stuck in Tenerife from Saturday. They finally arrived back at Birmingham International Airport at 2.30am on Tuesday.

Mr Law said: "It's not the best way to end a holiday."

Company must pay out after accident

A WASTE company from Rugeley has been ordered to pay more than £9,000 after a worker was pinned against a skip when a loader reversed into him.

The accident happened as the 23-year-old man from Cannock was handpicking waste from a skip at Rugeley Environmental Waste Services Ltd on September 5 last year. The victim suffered injuries to his groin and had to be airlifted to hospital. He managed to return to work after several weeks but has since left the company.

Investigators from the Health and Safety Executive found the loader was being used in a confined space and there were no measures to separate people walking on the shop floor from vehicles.

Guilty

The company, of Power Station Road, had failed to carry out a risk assessment of its workplace transport activities, investigators also found. Bosses pleaded guilty to not ensuring the safety of employees and was fined £5,000 and ordered to pay costs of £4,306 at Stafford magistrates court.

Speaking after the hearing, HSE Inspector Wayne Owen said: "This company had a poor and unsafe system of work."

No one could be contacted from the firm for comment.

Fan's death at V Festival

A REVELLER was found dead in his tent at the V Festival at Weston Park in Staffordshire last weekend.

Friends discovered 22-year-old Timothy Brockhurst, from Shropshire, was not breathing.

A security guard and an on-site doctor tried to revive him but he was pronounced dead at the scene.

Staffordshire Police are treating the death as unexplained.

Entertainment for chairman's charity

Andrew Brookes, Midland Balti Association, Councillor Bob Todd, owner Abdul Karim and Councillor Diane Todd

CANNOCK Council's chairman's charity is £600 better off thanks to a fundraising day at an Indian restaurant.

Comedians, singers and a belly dancer all provided the entertainment for Councillor Bob Todd's chosen cause, Cancer Research. It was held at Blue Ginger in Stafford Road, Huntington, on Sunday, August 12.

Councillor Todd was accompanied by his wife and consort, Councillor Diane Todd. Half the proceeds from meals sold on the day will go into the charity pot, while a further £100 was raised from a raffle.

Entertainers, who all performed for free, were vocalist and belly dancer Natasha Marie and singer/guitarist Mick Sewell.

There was music and comedy from Tony Holyman, a member of a Dr Hook tribute act and further vocal slots from Rachel Stone, Anthony Cox, Amanda Stone and Neil Collins. Comedian David St John acted as compere.

Thousands turn out to enjoy a party in park

THOUSANDS of people enjoyed a party in Cannock Park last weekend.

Organisers of the Party in the Park were delighted as around 5,000 attended Sunday's event. The figure was around 1,500 up on last year's spectacular.

The party kicked off with the Cannock Highland Pipe Band who opened the event with a march through the park.

Performances were also provided by Bridgtown Concert Show Band, Chase Choral Society, Chase Day Service, Back Street Theatre, Songbirds, Waiting for Susan, The Shine and Taking Hayley.

The Chase Harriers brought a touch of 'the Olympics' to the show by running a lap of Cannock Park carrying an official Olympic Torch.

The event also consisted of a Dance Fest, which invited visitors to have a go at disco, street dance, salsa and Zumba, all delivered by professional instructors.

Football

An It's A Knockout competition was among the attractions with more than 25 teams signing up for the rubber duck dash, barrow burnout, skippy dipping, and a minute mash-up.

There was also trampolining, football, golf, storytelling, a fire-juggler and Punch and Judy as well as fun with the Play Rangers and music and movement with Jo Jingles.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, the council's culture and sport leader, said: "Party in the Park was absolutely fantastic.

"It was great to see so many people enjoying the event and visiting Cannock Park."

Auction staff to head for heights

THREE staff members from a Penkridge auction house will be scaling the three peaks to raise funds for the Katharine House Hospice.

Taking part in The Three Peaks Challenge, three members of staff from Cuttlestones Auctioneers will be showing their support for the hospice.

The challenge involves climbing the highest heights in the British Isles – Ben Nevis, Scafell Pike and Snowdon.

Challenge

Cuttlestones managing director Ben Gamble, saleroom manager Thomas Waldron and office manager Elizabeth Vjestica have registered to undertake the challenge on October 19 when they will attempt to complete all three in less 24 hours.

The firm has raised more than £5,000 since January for the hospice since adopting it as its charity for 2012.

Mr Gamble said: "We have been hugely impressed by the support the charity offers to local people with life limiting illnesses."

Community fundraiser Amy Johnson said: "We are extremely honoured that they have chosen us as their charity of the year."

'I will shoot you' threat to officers

POLICE forced their way into the home of a suspected gunman in Cannock who had threatened to shoot officers, a court heard.

Officers armed with tasers surrounded the home of Robert Bennett, aged 47.

Bennett had locked himself in and refused to go to hospital.

Through the frosted front door, police saw him holding what looked like a barrelled gun. He had warned police he had six bullets and threatened: "I'll shoot you."

After a lengthy stand-off, a team of officers led by Pc Ben Gilbert "bravely" burst through the back door. Bennett was found sitting on a sofa, while the "gun" turned out to be a screwdriver taped to a piece of wood.

The 47-year-old, of Cannock Wood Street, Cannock, admitted a charge of affray and was given a six month prison sentence suspended for two years.

Estate loses vital income

THE cancellation of two major concerts at Shugborough saw the estate lose out on almost £10,000.

Jools Holland and the National Symphony Orchestra were due to perform last weekend but the plug was pulled when the organisers EMS Promotions went into liquidation.

Shugborough, which is battling against an ongoing deficit, was not left out of pocket but lost out on £9,808 in revenue. Four thousand tickets had been sold, with refunds provided.

County councillor Pat Corfield, cabinet member for culture and communities, said: "The estate is not out of pocket due of the cancellation of these concerts, as we were notified before any substantial preparation work was done," he said.

"It would have been nice to have got the concerts."

Teaching grant

EDUCATIONAL charity WEA has been awarded £75,802 to deliver adult education courses across Staffordshire, including Cannock. The Workers' Educational Association made the successful funding application to Staffordshire County Council's Adult and Community Learning Team. Funding is for one year initially, with courses starting in September.

Play centre is ordered to clean up its act

A CHILDREN'S play centre in Cannock which was found to have mould in the fridge and raw egg stored above ready-to-eat foods has been told to clean up its act.

Playtime Cannock Ltd scored one star out of a possible five in the Food Premises Inspection Report compiled out by Cannock Chase Council's environmental health food and safety team.

The report highlighted how the fridges were too warm and how raw food was being stored above cooked foods.

The centre, based on the Anglesey Business Park in Littleworth Road, was inspected on July 25. The report said: "Food unfit for human consumption was found in the refrigerator.

"Lettuce and other vegetables had been allowed to deteriorate, and there was evidence that previous food products had also deteriorated as the tray had not been cleaned and there was a growth of mould."

Staff were also unable to access the wash hand basin as a trolley was blocking access, and the report stated that this was "unacceptable".

Also criticised was the cleanliness of the kitchen, with the company being told to give it a thorough clean. "There is a significant build-up of grease on the tiled walls and around, behind and under equipment. There was a build-up of food debris in cupboards, under shelving and at wall/floor joints. Surfaces generally were found to be dirty," the report added.

The equipment in the kitchen also came under fire, with the counter and wash hand basin found to be in poor repair, and the mixer tap not being secured in place.

The environmental health and safety team said there was also a "significant" number of flies in the kitchen, with nothing preventing them from entering the kitchen or controlling them once they got in. However, the report noted that there were some efforts by staff by the time another inspection was carried out, with the sink being repaired and an insecticutor, which kills flies, having being bought.

The report stated that there was a lot of improvement needed in general food hygiene, structure and management systems.

Ashley Kitchen, manager of the centre, said many of the issues the council had highlighted had been rectified.

"Two weeks later, when we were re-inspected, the issues had been resolved, and as far as I'm aware, there are no problems," he said.

Artificial pitch in memory of Liam will open for public use

A NEW £800,000 artificial sport pitch in Cannock will open to the public from mid-September, it has been announced.

The Liam Keeling Arena is based at Cardinal Griffin RC High School. The facility has been named after Liam Keeling, of Cheslyn Hay, who died in October 2009 two weeks after celebrating his 13th birthday. He had meningococcal meningitis.

The youngster, a Year 8 pupil at Cardinal Griffin RC High School, was a promising midfielder for Wyrley Juniors under-13s Panthers, a feeder club to Walsall FC.

The football and hockey pitch, in Cardinal Way, hosted a charity football match in June featuring a host of former professionals, but will be open to the public from the middle of next month.

It has been created following a joint project between the school and Cannock Chase Council and has been funded by the Football Foundation.

Liam Keeling

Recognised

It will be open for community use on evenings and weekends. Other schools will be able to use the pitch during the day.

There will be a free open day for recognised clubs on September 9 from 2-6pm so players can trial the synthetic turf, which has a FIFA 2-Star rating, comparable to those used by major European clubs for training.

The arena will also host Cannock's only Sunday night six-a-side league, due to kick-off in September.

When Liam first passed away, his devastated family set up a fund to raise money for Meningitis UK. And earlier this year relatives achieved a milestone of having raised more than £100,000.

Parents Andy and Georgina, who also have a daughter Hannah, have worked tirelessly to raise cash in memory of their son. The charity said their total was an "amazing achievement" over that time.

A large part of the money has been raised through Wyrley Juniors FC, where Andy was joint manager.

He has vowed to continue fundraising until a vaccine is found. "Liam loved life and everyone who came into contact with him, felt his love and enthusiasm for everything," he said.

"We live now with a sadness, but we have comfort from happy memories that will always be with us and of being blessed to have had such a lovely son and brother."

Tributes described Liam as a "gentle giant and diamond footballer" after he died.

Rower Charlie Martell who is opening the Penkridge Beer Festival

Martell at beer festival

ACE rower Charlie Martell is to open a beer festival in Penkridge next month.

Martell, aged 41, is a double Guinness World Record holder and successfully crossed the North Atlantic Ocean in 2006. He also attempted the perilous 2012 Pacific Challenge.

Martell, a mine action specialist, was raising money for two charities Give Them A Sporting Chance which enables those with disabilities to complete their sporting ambitions, and Toe-in-the-Water who offer competitive sailing for servicemen and women who have often suffered traumatic injuries.

Now he has been snapped up by Penkridge Round Table have to open the village's first Beer Festival on September 21 and 22 at the Peace Memorial Hall in Pinfold Lane.

It will be run over three sessions with each one featuring live music and pub games. More than 30 local businesses have signed up to support the event, which will fea-ture in excess of 30 beers and real ales and a selection of ciders and wines.

Organiser Steve Creed said: "We're thrilled that the beer festival is to be opened by Charlie Martell. He is a true inspiration."

The rower will also be a guest speaker at Penkridge Round Table's Charter Night, immediately prior to the Penkridge Beer Festival.

Festival tickets are on sale from either the Horse & Jockey pub, Market Street, Penkridge or online at www.penkridgebeerfestival.co.uk

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

FROM the town of Kempten in Bavaria comes news of a mass brawl involving two families. One clan moved a park bench into the sunshine. Then the other lot turned up and said they always used that bench and wanted it in the shade. One family then rushed off and came back with chains and a padlock (so organised, these Germans) to prevent the others from moving it. After a bit of pushing and shoving the police arrived. And you wonder why the Germans always manage to grab the sunbeds on holiday. They spend the rest of the year practising.

NO SOONER had the above item appeared online a few days ago than the politically-correct brigade descended on me by email, raging with the usual anonymous, holier-than-thou fury. One denounced it as "a childish piece of racist nonsense" and another declared piously that "journalism like this makes me ashamed to be English." Several called for me to be sacked. Listen. I will say zis only once. I have German friends. They love Britain. They adore our countryside, our coastline and most of our food. But the one thing they admire, cherish and envy more than anything else is our irreverent British sense of humour. I know they would laugh like a drain about the Bavarian bench-nicking story.

SAD tale from a cyclist following the suggestion a few days back that all bike riders should have a bicycle bell. He fitted one some years ago and rang it "in a friendly manner" at a group of ramblers. Their leader, a 70-something with a walking stick, struck him and yelled: "How dare you ring that *ing thing at me." Eager to avoid similar offence, the cyclist removed the bell. A little later he approached a group of ramblers, shouted "a friendly salutation" and was duly whacked on the back by the group leader, again a 70-something bloke with a walking stick who yelled: "Get a *ing bell on that bike."

❐❐❐❐❐❐❐❐

AS NIGHT follows day, there is a rash of post-Olympics reports telling us how we can all live for ever by taking more exercise, even in middle-age. So go for it, all you couch potatoes. Do a quick 50 press-ups followed by a 100-metre dash. And if you suddenly notice your running companion is an old bloke in a black cloak carrying a scythe, do not be surprised. Peter O'Toole once remarked: "The only exercise I take is walking behind the coffins of friends who took exercise."

❐❐❐❐❐❐❐❐

BEWARE of Olympics-cobblers parading as fact - for example, the oft-repeated claim that Olympic success creates a fit and healthy nation. If that is true, how come the three medal-winning giants, China, the United States and Great Britain, lead the world in child obesity?

❐❐❐❐❐❐❐❐

AND IF playing fields are crucial to a nation's Olympic success, how come in the golden age of playing fields of the 1950s-80s we won tiddly-squit at the Games but now, with thousands of playing fields sold off, we are third in the medal table? You could probably draw a graph showing that the more playing fields we sell, the more medals we win.

Katie learns business ingredients

A BUSINESS student from Cheslyn Hay has started a work experience placement at a new company formed by a former The Apprentice contestant.

Walsall College student Katie Farman will be working with Whisk, a new Birmingham-based food company co-founded by Nick Holzherr, who came third in this year's series of The Apprentice.

He studied international business at Aston University and was voted Birmingham Young Personality of the Year 2011 for entrepreneurship after launching his own coffee business. Whisk, his new venture, aims to revolutionise meal planning and grocery shopping with the launch of a new recipe web tool. It allows users to purchase the ingredients for any recipe they find on the internet, saving the need for a trip to the supermarket.

Katie, aged 20, is due to study business management at university and was given the chance of work experience at Whisk after winning the business and enterprise category at the National BTEC Awards 2012. She said: "My dream is to one day start my own business so working alongside Nick is really inspiring."

Mr Holzherr said: "It's a great opportunity for her to gain valuable experience in seeing how a new company is created."

Waiting list for council homes in district grows

THE waiting list for council houses in Cannock Chase is growing, new figures reveal, exacerbating a shortage of family homes.

Numbers have climbed by 82 from 2,715 in April to 2,797 this month, an increase of three per cent.

by Mark Mudie

The authority's head of housing, Ian Tennant said people were turning to local authority properties as they struggled to buy their own homes.

Despite the rising figures, council leader George Adamson has hit out at a report claiming councils should sell off their most expensive houses and reinvest money building cheaper homes.

Poverty

He said the proposals, published by the Policy Exchange think tank, would create "ghettos" of poverty.

Mr Tennant said: "Our waiting list is growing and one of the reasons is the affordability of homes.

"The people who would normally buy are renting privately, so it's pushing people to local authority housing.

"It's always been family accommodation that we are shortest of and that is the case again." The Policy Exchange claimed this week that selling top homes when they became vacant would raise £4.5 billion a year, enough to build 80,000 to 170,000 new social homes across the country.

The think tank said the move would provide a shot in the arm for the ailing construction industry.

But Councillor Adamson said he would not consider any such scheme in Cannock.

"They want to move poor people out of middle class areas and create ghettos," he said.

Meanwhile, a further seven homes have been vacated to make way for the first council house building programme in Cannock for a quarter of a century.

Cannock Chase Council needs to rehouse residents from 170 flats before work can start on 70 new homes.

Progress welcomed on building of new store

PROGRESS on a new supermarket development in Burntwood has been welcomed by a local councillor. The former Bridge Cross Working Men's Club in Chase Terrace was bulldozed to make way for an Aldi store.

Work is under way at the site in Bridge Cross Road and the store will open on November 22. District and town councillor Steve Taylor welcomed progress but said the firm should have used energy-saving technology in construction.

He said: "It is progressing very nicely and it's good to see despite my opposition to the construction methods."

The 800 sq ft store with a 67-space car park was approved despite more than 200 objections from residents. Plans for road developments round the store still have to be agreed.

War grave tradition continues

Levi Gittings, 17, from Cannock, Jonathan Conrad, 16, from Soltau, Germany, and Derrick Ellison, chairman of the Hednesford British Legion

TEENAGERS came together to celebrate a 50-year union and tend to war graves on Cannock Chase.

Ten young people from Staffordshire and 16 from Bremen, Germany, worked on the German and Commonwealth War Graves on Cannock Chase.

The 16-to-17-year-olds were carrying out a tradition dating back 50 years. Project leader Katharina Kühl said: "Thirteen years ago I was here participating in this and so to return now as a leader is a great experience."

Cannock girl Levi Gittings, aged 17 said: "It is good to know about the war and also make friends from Germany. I was amazed to find out this happens each year and I am proud to be involved in it."

College students cut it to progress

TWO hair students from South Staffordshire College proved a cut above at the Worldskills Hairdressing heats.

Nicola Cornwall from Cannock and Alice Enifer from Brownhills, who both study at Cannock Campus, made their way through to the next round in November after finishing first and third respectively.

They were asked to perform a cut, colour, blow-dry and design on a mannequin in the first heat, then repeat the exercise in order to progress through to the second stage.

Their designs were photographed by Tamworth-based photography company Outside the Box and the images were sent to the WorldSkills judging panel, which included a former WorldSkills winner.

Trisha Tunstall, South Staffordshire College Hairdressing lecturer, said: "We are delighted they have made it to the NEC for the November round."

Make it snug for the bugs

CHASEWATER rangers are inviting families to make insect homes for the country park's sensory garden.

The free event takes place on Bank Holiday Monday, August 27. Families will be given a small box to fill with grass, twigs, stones, bamboo and other material, to make a home for the park's creepy crawlies.

The sensory garden has been part-funded by Councillor Paul Atkins, through Staffordshire County Council's Members' Initiative Fund.

Chaswater Ranger Ellen Williams said: "This will be a fun activity for all the family to get involved in."

Industrial death of ex-machinist

A CORONER has recorded an industrial death verdict on a former retail worker from Cheslyn Hay.

Anuradha Chadha, a 40-year-old ex-machinist of Moons Lane, died at Compton Hospice on May 11 last year after being diagnosed with mesothelioma.

But Black Country Coroner Robin Balmain said it was not known how she became exposed to asbestos.

Thieves take covers from eight drains

METAL thieves stole eight drain covers from roads in Burntwood in one week, according to highways bosses.

Five covers were taken from Corbett Road, with others stolen from areas in Chase Terrace.

Church Street, Church Street car park and Attwood Road, were also targeted.

The theft of drain covers has been an increasing problem in streets around Staffordshire and the Black Country, with taxpayers left to foot the bill.

Authorities can be forced to spend between £150 and £500 on replacing the iron plates.

Dealers

Mike Maryon, cabinet member for Highways and Transport at Staffordshire County Council, said: "Metal theft is a major problem across the UK and we need national action, such as greater checks on scrap metal dealers.

"Eight gully covers were stolen in the Chase Terrace area last week."

Councillor Maryon said anti-theft covers and frames were being used and that talks were going forward about the possibility of using materials that have no value to metal thieves.

Meadow of wildflowers

A WILDFLOWER meadow is being created at a Burntwood burial ground.

The town council has hired Staffordshire Ecological Services to create the meadow at the Coulter Lane Burial Ground, in St Matthews Road.

It will comprise ox-eye daisy, red campion, birdsfoot trefoil, common poppy, meadow buttercup, chervil, ladys bedstraw and black knapweed mixed with an annual seed mix of common poppy, corn marigold and cornflower.

The woodland flower area will consist of bluebell, foxglove, yellow archangel and cow parsley.

Jewellery making

A JEWELLERY-making workshop called Bangles and Beads takes place next Tuesday (August 28), with a natural arts and crafts session for two-to-five-year-olds taking place from 9.30am the next day. Activities cost £2 per child and places are limited so prebooking is recommended on 01543 370737.

County sport boosted by London Games

SPORT in Staffordshire has enjoyed a huge boost from the Olympics – with around 1,000 sporting events recently registered in the county.

Nationally, there have been 6,000 sporting events registered with the Join In Local Sport website, which was set up to encourage more people to get involved with their local clubs.

Staffordshire makes up around 17.5 per cent of the UK's national total so far.

The website works by clubs and communities registering their event on a specially-designed website that then allows individuals to find events happening in their local area.

There are more than three dozen sports represented on the website, including hockey, rugby, cricket, tennis and Aikido.

Staffordshire county councillor Pat Corfield said: "The Olympic Games have generated unprecedented enthusiasm for sport across Staffordshire and Join In has helped capture that enthusiasm.

Advantage

"We want people from across the county to take advantage of this incredible summer of sport by joining in at a local participating club.

"There are still plenty of opportunities to get involved, visit the Join In website for events at your local sports clubs up until August 28."

Laurie Alcock is president of Cannock Hockey Club. He said: "It is great that so many clubs are having events in the county and I hope that we get a lot more people involved in sport.

"I know that hockey has had a very big push from the Olympics, particularly womans hockey as the Duchess of Cambridge is such a fan."

To find out more about the events happening in Staffordshire and surrounding areas, visit www.joinuk.org or follow them on twitter @JoinInUk

Olympic legends 'Join In' on visit to inspire a generation

OLYMPIC icons Sharron Davies and Daley Thompson stopped off in Cannock during a nationwide tour of sports clubs.

Decathlete Thompson, a former world record holder and double Olympic gold medallist, arrived at Cannock Hockey Club in a 'Battle Bus' along with Davies, a silver medal-winning swimmer from Moscow 1980.

They were joined at the club in Church Street, Hatherton, by David Moorcroft, a former Olympic 5,000 metre runner and presenter John Inverdale.

The tour aims to capitalise on the excitement generated by the London 2012 Games and the medallists did their bit by battling it out on the pitch at Chase Park on Saturday.

It was the final stop on the tour promoting grassroots sport.The nationwide campaign will see more than 5,000 events take place.

The celebrities were greeted by dozens of youngsters playing rush hockey.

The stars set out on the three-day tour on Friday as part of the Join In campaign.

Davies admitted that it had been a long day but added: "Everyone has been so enthusiastic it has lifted us wherever we have gone and kept us going.

Volunteers

"The whole point is to capitalise on the energy of the Olympics.

"Its been a lot of fun and very rewarding to see how hard local volunteers work to make sure sports clubs continue to give everyone the chance to have a go and Join In with sport in their area."

Inverdale, one of the BBC's anchormen during its London 2102 coverage, said: "I'm not saying this to curry favour, but I do think this is the best hockey club in Britain."

He added: "It has been truly inspiring to see how sport on a local level can involve everyone in the community whether its making the sandwiches or coaching the next Team GB star.

"It is incredibly important for everyone to join in and help out where they keen to ensure that local clubs continue to thrive."

A club spokesman said: "Cannock Hockey club took advantage of this unique moment to create a shop window within the local community, to showcase the opportunities there are for people inspired by the Games to help out, give time, support, watch or play."

Business really motoring at car components firm

BUSINESS is booming at Cannock motor parts firm Tallent Automotive, which is creating 50 jobs after winning several high-profile contracts.

The Wolverhampton Road company has landed work on the replacement Toyota Auris and chassis design of the new BMW Mini and 1 Series.

New roles are for production workers to help cope with demand for the new Auris, due out in October. And there is a promise of further jobs when the scale of work for BMW becomes clearer.

The components company is based at the former base of Albion Press Metals. It already employs around 1,000 with its shop floor featuring around 170 robots helping staff create and weld bespoke parts.

Among its major clients are Honda. The firm produces the door frame of the Jazz model.

Staff levels are now back to when they were reduced by a third because of the recession.

Factory

A number of workers, whose posts were made redundant in 2009, have since returned.

Among them was Gail Edwards, of Cannock, who clocked up 21 years service before her post was axed in 2009. She is now back on the factory floor working in car components assembly.

"I knew I'd be comfortable if I came back, I did all my training here and enjoyed it," she said.

Veterinary nurse and volunteer Lucy Ansell with Honey

DOG owners are being invited to enter their beloved pets in a special show which will raise charity funds this weekend.

EC Straiton & Partners Vets in Penkridge are hosting their first charity dog show on Sunday (August 26) to raise cash for the Hearing Dogs For The Deaf charity.

Last year, the Cannock Road practice held a dog walk over the Chase and hope for a bit of canine competition this year will encourage more people to take part.

Dogs will be judged across 11 possible categories, ranging from best trick, to best veteran and puppy, to waggiest tale, and even the most unusual looking dog.

Lucy Ansell, a registered veterinary nurse at the practice, said: "It's a fantastic cause because the charity is not Government funded so it needs as many people as possibly to give it some support."

Cost to enter each category is £1.50.

Caravan site may expand for growing gipsy family

A GIPSY caravan site on green belt land in Cheslyn Hay would be too large if allowed to double in size, it has been claimed.

Councillor Mike Boyle said proposals to install an extra eight caravans on land off Hospital Lane, would "not go down well". The applicants have planned the move to accomodate a growing family.

by Richard Woodall

Eight caravans are already based at the site, on six pitches, and four of the new buildings would be static homes.

Applicants Fred and Joanne Rogers say they want to expand their holding to accommodate a growing family.

But Councillor Boyle claimed permission for them to move onto the plot was only granted on the understanding the development would remain small.

Permission

He said: "There are a few reasons for concern for the district council," he said. "Firstly, it is on green belt.

"Then there is the fact the permission was granted for immediate family and close relatives only.

"It was never intended to be a large site," added Councillor Boyle.

South Staffs District Council is yet to prepare a report on the application, which will be considered by councillors in October.

A document submitted in support of the plans by the applicant state that while green belt land would be lost, "loss of openness would be limited".

It adds: "There is a clear and immediate need for additional permanent gipsy sites in South Staffordshire.

"Extending the existing caravan site would satisfy the family's need for additional accommodation and contribute towards meeting the general unmet need for permanent gipsy sites in South Staffordshire."

Shopping centre trip won't be repeated

I RECENTLY had cause to call at Cannock Shopping Centre. The visit to the most horrendous, difficult, dark, concrete parking jungle is one I shall never repeat.

I parked in a long, totally empty bay. But I failed to place the car within the two yellow lines and this appears to be a major transgression.

I had displayed parking badges and also paid for a ticket. However, when I returned just 12 minutes I had been issued with a ticket by Elite Parking Management. I appealed, it was rejected, and I was issued with a £75 fine, to increase to £125 if not paid within seven days. I was threatened with debt recovery agents if not paid promptly.

Perhaps people are aware of the heavy-threated penalties that the owner of the car park imposes on its visitors. If not, maybe this will make them aware.

Athletes brought honour to country

I WOULD like to comment about the superb Olympics that I had the honour to watch.

Firstly I would like to say that all the athletes that took part not only bought honour to the country, they also performed beyond all expectation – not the just the medal winners but all those who performed well beyond their best.

Secondly, I would say it is time for the government to put its money where its mouth is. It states that it will invest in the future of sport, then someone who represents the sport minister states that those sports which are not producing the top results will have their funding reduced.

Plus, the Sports Minister and David Cameron have closed several sports fields. Instead of doing this they need to invest in facilities and if they are not willing to do this out of their own pockets, then they should start the Olympic lottery and turn it into a sport lottery and let Richard Branson run it.

Finally to those people who complain about the Olympics and say we are not as good as other countries. may I remind them that we won 65 medals, 29 of which were gold.

People should also realise that our athletes train hard and hold down jobs, but if more facilities were made available this might be a way to take teenagers off the streets into a place where they will have ambition, discipline and hope for the future.

Soul destroying for the young workers

AMAZON came to Rugeley with much publicity about the number of jobs they were creating for local people. My granddaughter, who lives in Rugeley was one of those lucky enough to be taken on.

Unfortunately, Amazon was not as busy as had been hoped. In January my granddaughter and many of the other employees were told they were no longer needed, just before they would have earned some employment rights.

In May she was again offered a job there. She and others taken on at the same time have again been dismissed, again just before becoming entitled to some employment rights.

Another group was taken on and will, I'm very much afraid, suffer the same treatment. I understand Amazon uses an agency for the hiring and firing. It is soul destroying for young people just starting out on their working life.

Call to start up a Geriolympics

WE witnessed tremendous activity at the recent Olympic Games and now the Paralympic Games are about to start. I was wondering if it would be possible to now have a Geriolympic Games for persons over the age of 65 years. This age group is growing in the numbers presenting in the social community so why not! I would be interested to hear from anyone who sees this as a possibility.

FURTHER to the letters page on August 2 regarding the Lyne Hill development in Penkridge.

I am trying to raise awareness and get people to contribute to the debate about the future (balanced) growth of the village while trying to protect the centre and its shops.

The previous planning application was refused by the South Staffordshire District Council, Penkridge parish council also objected.

Now we are at 'Round 2' which is the appeal, with 'Round 3' two more fresh applications.

Memories of Man In The Sky relived

WITH reference to your Memory Lane article on August 8 about the production of the movie The Man In The Sky. At the time when this film was being made I was a 14-year-old newspaper delivery boy in the Bushbury area.

I would often see the said aircraft passing overhead, supposedly on fire with smoke trailing behind, as I delivered my newspapers. Also being a member of 1047 squadron ATC based at Pendeford was quite close to the action. Unfortunately I was never able to view the film so if anyone knows where I might obtain a copy it would be much appreciated.

Evidence needed of rainfall damage

DOES anyone in the Rugeley/Armitage areas have any photographic evidence of the massive freak rainfall which occurred on Saturday, August 4, or has anyone else incurred damage to their property ?

We had water cascading through ceilings and light fittings, yet my insurance is disputing cover as they say from their records Rugeley only had 2.5mm of rain in one hour and it needs to be 16mm per hour to warrant a claim. I need proof of rainfall and any damage incurred by any other residents. I know Morrisons car park was flooded. Can any one help?

War camp survivor wins medal seven decades on

A GREAT Wyrley woman has received the Siberian Cross from the Polish Government for her time in a repatriation camp.

by Richard Woodall

Janina Chmielewska was one of many Polish people dragged from their homes and moved to Siberia in April 1940. She was removed from the country at the age of 15 along with her 11-year-old sister Helena and 13-year-old brother Wladek. The youngster was then put to backbreaking farming work and laying railway track.

"The time there was terrible," recalled Janina, now 88, of Jacobs Hall Lane. "They kept us sometimes without food for two or three days. A lot of old people died on their way there. We had to work in places they put us in."

Her son Edward, from Walsall, is 59 and a history teacher at Wolverhampton's Heath Park Business & Enterprise College. He said: "My mother was at home and suddenly the Russian troops knocked on the door."

"She was given a couple of hours notice and just told by them to 'pack your things'. My mother would probably have been one of the oldest."

Upon leaving, he said, his mother took many layers of clothing with her in order to barter with when in Siberia.

"It had just been her birthday, and these were new clothes" he said.

"Her particular village, Zablocie, was on the eastern side of Poland. They were all rounded up, not knowing what was happening and yet probably expecting the worst. She was responsible for her younger brother and sister."

The journey was one of the hardest chapters for Mrs Chmielewska and her siblings. They were driven for mile after mile in cattle trucks in poor conditions and crowded spaces.

"The journey itself was horrendous. It was hot and unpleasant. They only had one small area for a toilet.

"People died in there. When they did stop, they were just hoping people would give them water."

When she arrived at the camp, she was left to fend for herself.

In June 1941 the farm workers were moved again, hundreds of miles away to lay 36 kilometres of railway line. They were made to work until, as prisoners of war, they were later released two months later.

Mr Chmielewska added: "My mother met my father, Marian, in Britain. Dad was a pilot and mum a wireless operator. I am very proud of my mother receiving it. It's important to recognise people's suffering."

Tribute to movies in floral form

NORTON CANES FLOWER CLUB

THE July meeting was opened by chairman Jose Aulton, who welcomed members and guests.

Jose introduced the demonstrator Helen Jones with her presentation "Lights, Camera, Action". This was Helen's interpretation of some of the classic films from Gone With The Wind, through to James Bond, featuring an arrangement in an oversized Martini glass.

Not only did Helen produce stunning arrangements to represent the films but she was able to give a history about them as well.

Chris thanked Helen and congratulated her for providing a super display as well as adding to the group's knowledge about the films.

The AGM will be on Wednesday October 31 at the Terrace Restaurant.

October 19 is the date of the Chadsmoor Flower Festival "120 years of Saint Chad" and some members are taking part. They will be decorating the right hand side of the church, depicting the period 1982 to1992.

Entries for the annual photographic competition need to be in at the October meeting.

The next meeting on Wednesday September 19 at Trinity Methodist Church from 7.30pm. It will be A practical one led by Jose and will also be a Harvest supper.

CANNOCK & DISTRICT SOROPTIMISTS

CANNOCK Soroptimists' summer celebration was on a warm, sunny July evening.

More than 60 members and guests were welcomed at St Luke's Church Centre by joint president Pam McGauley and enjoyed a buffet meal provided by Cannock Catering College.

Entertainment came from young singer Aimee Lake who hails from Wellington, Shropshire. Aimee is about to begin her final year at Mountview, London where she is studying for a BA honours degree in performing arts. She has a beautifully rich voice and everyone wished her well. She sang numbers from classical and jazz genres as well as singing songs from the shows.

The next meeting is on September 4 at the Barns.

Notice given of shops trip

CANNOCK AND DISTRICT LADIES PROBUS CLUB

CHAIRMAN Pauline Parlane welcomed members and visitors, Carrie Summers and Jean Woolley. She said several members enjoyed an afternoon playing rummikub in June.

Jenny Dunn distributed picture quizzes while waiting for their lunch. She gave advance notice of an outing to the Touchwood shopping outlet in Solihull in October. Future events also include an afternoon tea and plant swap at Bethel Methodist Church Hall in Bridgtown, a craft day and a games day at the home of the chairman. Speaker was Ian Kingsley, a volunteer at the National Brewing Museum.

His talk was about "Girls at the Big House" – when life was hard for the under-privileged in the early 1900s and girls left school at 12 to work as a maid in a big house.

Janet Anderson gave a vote of thanks. For membership details call Barbara Bowman 01543 505107.

It will be followed on Wednesday (August 29), with a five-mile walk at Burntwood and Pipe Hill. Meet by Christ Church, Farewell Lane, Burntwood for a 10am departure.

Marriage a Shaw thing

65th anniversary couple Alan and Norma Shaw

A CANNOCK couple who met at a youth club have celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Alan and Norma Shaw married at St Luke's Church in 1947 and have lived in the town all their lives.

The proud couple marked their landmark anniversary alongside family and friends with a celebration dinner at the Roman Way Hotel.

During the evening a card from the Queen was read out and speeches were made, while the couple were presented with flowers and whisky.

Eighty-six year old Mr Shaw, who was stationed in Italy with the RAF during World War Two, previously worked as a tailor for Burton and at decorating firm SJ Dixon.

He and Mrs Shaw, 87, have three children, four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

They regularly spend their summers caravanning in the Welsh village of Berriew.

Son-in-law Joseph Edwards, also from Cannock, said: "It was an excellent celebration and the evening went with a bang.

"They both said how much they had really enjoyed themselves."

Jobless figures on the increase

UNEMPLOYMENT in Staffordshire is going against the trend by rising.

Despite joblessness falling to its lowest level for a year nationwide, there has been a jump in Cannock and Stafford in the number of people out of work.

The jobless total fell by 46,000 in the quarter to June to 2.56 million – an unemployment rate of eight per cent.

The number of people claiming Jobseeker's allowance last month was 1.59 million, down by 5,900 on June, said the Office for National Statistics.

The discrepancy arises because not everyone is entitled to the benefit.

The claimant count rose by 30 in Cannock to 2,253 equating to 3.7 per cent of the working population.

Chris Plant, manager of Chase Chamber of Commerce Group said he was extremely concerned and disappointed by the rise. He said: "We are also concerned that the number of young unemployed people in the region has risen in recent months.

"The government needs to do more to stimulate demand and growth through infrastructure investment."

He said they also heard from employers how many candidates did not meet basic skills needs in areas like literacy and numeracy.

Tackle

Mr Plant added: "Growing take up of vocational training like apprenticeships is critical as is improving work-readiness and employability through the school curriculum.

"In order to help tackle this, we believe that the government must do more to free business from the burden of regulation and red tape, which hinder job creation by diverting resources and funds away from growth."

Pub music aids forces

A CHARITY night is being held tonight (Thursday) at a Cannock pub. It will raise cash for UK Forces Support. The Fern and Fallow, in Stafford Road, will host the event from 7pm. Singers Sam Hollyman, Wolly and the band Waiting for Susan will perform. Military uniform fancy dress is the theme, with the best outfit winning a prize. Entry is £2 on the door.

Dedicated donors have given blood for the cause

Keith Sammons and Ian Lloyd are rewarded for giving blood 75 times

Michael Bradley was also rewarded

DEDICATED blood donors from Cannock have been recognised for rolling up their sleeves to help save lives.

Michael Bradley, Ian Lloyd and Keith Sammons have each reached the milestone of 75 donations, potentially saving the lives of up to 225 patients each.

They were honoured with crystal plates at a recent awards ceremony held by NHS Blood and Transplant (NHSBT) at the Bromsgrove Hilton.

Mr Sammons, a 57-year-old accountant, has been giving blood for 38 years. He said: "The thought that I may have contributed towards saving lives has kept me giving."

Minutes

Mr Bradley, aged 58, has been a blood donor for around 39 years. The foundry worker said: "I know that it helps to save people's lives and all it takes is a few minutes of my time and costs nothing."

Around 50 donors in all were congratulated for their efforts. Shai Mistry, lead donor relations manager at NHSBT, said: " The commitment that these blood donors have shown to donating blood throughout their lives is remarkable and we hope this inspires others to follow."

Donors are urged to keep giving throughout August to provide stocks until the end of the Paralympics in September.

Currently 7,000 units of blood are needed every day to help save the lives of sick and injured patients across England and North Wales.

Dairy farmers pondering energy production switch

DAIRY farmers hit by low milk prices are considering selling their herds so that they can switch to producing electricity and heat. Rugeley-based EnviTec Biogas said it had seen a rise in interest, particularly from younger farmers concerned about their profits.

It follows protests by farmers over the prices they are paid for milk. EnviTec, which plans, builds and runs green energy plants on farms, said farmers had been in touch to say they were considering getting out of the dairy trade. The firm turns slurry and other organic material into electricity and heat.

'Best friends' celebrate

Golden wedding couple Barbara and Leslie Sansom

A COUPLE from Burntwood are toasting 50 years of wedded bliss this week. Leslie and Barbara Sansom, of Severn Drive, tied the knot in St Matthew's Church in Great Barr on August 25, 1962.

Today, they describe themselves as 'best friends'.

Mr Sansom, now aged 72, was an apprentice plumber at Brooklyn Technical College in Great Barr. His wife Barbara, 71, was a trainee book-keeper and worked in Birmingham.

They met at an annual dance at the technical college.

The couple have a daughter Louise, aged 41, and two grandchildren.

Mr Sansom said: "I was 18 and she was 17 when we met in 1958. One of the chaps I was at college with, he was going out with a girl who was my wife's sister. They went to the dance and I met my wife there."

Romance started for Leslie and Barbara when he gave her a lift home from the dance, with the couple then getting married four years later.

"People talk about love but at the end of the day it's doing things together. That's the secret," he said.

"If I go out fishing, she will come along too, or we'll go to National Trust places together. We're best friends."

Business charter given a welcome

EFFORTS to foster a new relationship between business and local regulators to encourage economic growth have been welcomed.

Greater Birmingham & Solihull Local Enterprise Partnership (GBSLEP) has launched a regulatory charter setting out the relationship between regulators and business under the 'Better Business for All' brand.

Cannock Chase Council has pledged its support for the charter, as well as ACAS, Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, the Federation of Small Businesses (FSB), West Midlands Fire Service and the other eight local authorities in the LEP area.

Cannock Council's economic development leader Councillor Gordon Alcott said: "It is the small and medium-size firms that will particularly benefit from the new arrangements.

"These are the companies we should be targeting to help them grow and create wealth and jobs.

"Firms can expect to experience less red tape and bureaucracy, quicker and easier access to information and a greater understanding of their problems," Councillor Alcott added.

Thrive

Paul Heaven, GBSLEP board director and managing director of Blue Sky Corporate Finance, said: "Good businesses thrive when regulations are transparent and consistently applied."

The Charter is available in full from www.gbslep.com, www.birmingham-chamber.com and www.fsb.org.uk

A TALENTED musician is preparing to take to the stage at a top arts festival next month.

Jack Greenfield has already found success on video sharing website YouTube, with more than 80,000 people logging on to see him perform.

The 17-year-old from Chase Terrace, who studied at Lichfield's Music College, has been picked from hundreds of artists to perform at Birmingham's Artsfest, a free urban festival held in the city centre.

Jack, who goes under the name Greenstar, will be performing on September 8 from 12.30pm to 1pm with six of his songs, including Come with Me and Secret Love.

Proud

His style, which he said is similar to N-Dubz, includes rapping and singing and he writes and records his own music.

He will be performing in front of thousands of people.

His father Barry, 40, said: "We are so proud of him. His music appeals to a wide range of people. He is just in talks and hopes to be signed soon, too. I know he can't wait to do it."

Jack, who is about to start another two-year music course at Lichfield, said: "I can't wait to showcase my songs in Birmingham."

Stranded tourists relive their flight delay ordeal

A CANNOCK man was among those stranded abroad for more than two days because of a fault with their aeroplane.

The holidaymakers relived their ordeal after being stuck in Tenerife and finally touching down on home soil at 2.30am on Tuesday.

Around 150 passengers, including families from Staffordshire and the Black Country, had been due to arrive back at Birmingham Airport on Saturday night.

But the Monarch airline crew discovered a problem with the door hatch just before the flight was scheduled to leave.

The passengers were put up in a hotel in Tenerife's capital Santa Cruz while engineers worked to fix the fault. The aircraft was being operated on behalf of Monarch by Air Aurel.

Passengers said they were "kept in the dark" about any plans to return them home and that they were not given any information about how long they would be stranded.

Among them was Dennis Law, aged 41, of Cannock, who said: "It's not the best way to end a holiday."

A replacement plane was flown out om Monday night to return the waiting travellers to the UK.

Monarch apologised for the inconvenience and has offered each passenger £100 in compensation and a £100 flight voucher. Others hit by the delay were Esther and Gary Rowley, from Halesowen, who holiday in Tenerife every year. Mrs Rowley, a 42-year-old payroll co-ordinator, said the passengers had been told there was a delay to Saturday's 8.30pm ZB933 flight once they were on board.

Glad to be back – holidaymakers Marilyn Baker, aged 58, from West Bromwich, Dennis Law, 41, from Cannock, Esther Rowley, 42, from Halesowen, Gordon Farney, 58, from West Bromwich and Steven Olden, 51, from Great Barr

Complaint

"About 45 minutes went by and everybody was getting restless. It then became a waiting game. We were taken to the hotel at about 2am and then we just had to wait," she said.

Mrs Rowley said the couple would not be flying with Monarch again and would be making an official complaint.

Also stuck in Tenerife were Ian Baynham, 46, and his 15-year-old son Sam, who live in Wombourne.

They had enjoyed a week at a four star all-inclusive hotel before their flight home was delayed. Mr Baynham, who works as a freight forwarder, said: "If we had known it would be two days we could have done more with our time instead of just waiting around."

Sale bags charity cash

Natalie Cooper, Jo Foster, Liza Larkin and Ella Dixon, aged nine, at Great Wyrley Senior Citizens Centre

BARGAIN hunters boosted the coffers of a Great Wyrley-based charity at a table top sale.

Around 20 stalls selling clothes, toys and perfumes were set up at Great Wyrley Senior Citizens Centre in Broadmeadow Lane on Saturday.

The fundraiser, in aid of the Abducted Angels charity set up by Norton Canes father Sean Felton, raked in up to £300.

Mr Felton said he was delighted with the haul.

"The turnout was brilliant," he said. "We have had massive support from the Cannock area. It's overwhelming how far the charity has come in 12 months."

Support

The Abducted Angels charity provides support for parents of abducted children, and campaigns for their rights.

Proceeds from the event will go towards a new support centre which Mr Felton hopes to open in October.

There will be a 24-hour helpline for children, counselling sessions for youngsters and their parents, as well as activities for people with special needs.

It comes as Mr Felton prepares for a 100-mile fundraising walk, due to finish in Cannock on Saturday, September 1.

Opinion divided over plans for leisure centre extension

PLANS worth £750,000 to expand Rugeley Leisure Centre have split the opinion of residents in the town.

The number of pieces of equipment will double to 80 as the gym is extended to introduce a new Profiles Health and Fitness Centre at the site, matching that at Cannock Chase's sister leisure centre.

by Alex Homer

Operators Wigan Leisure and Culture Trust will fund the scheme, it has been announced, under its 10-year contract to manage leisure and culture in the district.

Residents have however questioned why cash is being ploughed into the leisure centre, rather than other cultural pursuits. Some maintain investing in sport facilities is good thinking.

Richard Jankowski said: "Not everyone wants to spend an evening with their significant other at the gym, or at cardio-boxing.

Toilets

"Invest the money in entertainment in Rugeley. bowling alley, cinema, improve Elmore park or perhaps build a new park.

"I don't visit a town because I think they have a great gym."

Lisa Farrelly added: "Yes use some of the money to improve facilities, but how about some public toilets in the town. There is none at all at night, unless you use a pub. Maybe there should be a youth centre, like there used to be to help keep the teenagers off the streets."

Dave Hanmer disagreed. He said: "I can't believe all the negative comments. Apparently 17,000 people visited Cannock Chase Leisure Centre between January and March. So it's popular. Therefore spending money on it has to be money well spent. The Leisure Centre is available to all."

Work is anticipated to take four months and will be complete within the current financial year, according to the trust's business plan. A planning application has already been approved.

Existing facilities would be transferred to the sports hall while work takes place.

Floor space will swell by 1,400sq ft after the extension, and the gym will be filled with the latest equipment from Technogym, trust chiefs say.

A £100,000 all weather pitch has also recently opened at the Burnthill Lane venue.

'Seaside' fun day to grow, say organisers

ORGANISERS have revealed they will swell the size of a popular annual event which pulled in more than 500 people in Rugeley.

The local traders' association put on the fun-filled Rugeley by the Sea event and the showpiece occasion will be even bigger next year.

An old-fashioned Punch & Judy Show kept the children entertained, along with donkey rides, face painting, a juggler and a stilt-walker.

The centrepiece was an Olympic-style sandpit and two small water pools.

Rugeley DJ Duncan Edwards played a range of music, while people walked around a wide range of market stalls.

Association chairman Chris Green said: "Next year we'd like to make it larger.

"It was a popular event within the community and will be well supported if it was done on a larger scale."

Bee expert on hand for talk

THE Friends Of Etching Hill have a meeting with bumblebee expert Ron Rock next Thursday (August 30).

It is free and takes place from 7.30pm at Etching Hill Church Hall, Mount Road Etching Hill.

Everyone is welcome and refreshments are provided.

Call to put mouth where the money is

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley and Big Local representative Irene Evison

RESIDENTS in Brereton have been shown how to get involved in spending a lottery million.

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley paid a visit to encourage the residents to get involved in the decision.

The village was allocated £1m through the Big Local programme to make the area an even better place to live. It was selected by the Big Lottery Fund as part of the £200m Big Local programme to improve 150 neighbourhoods across England and put locals in the driving seat to decide how the money is spent.

Mr Burley met Big Local representative Irene Evison, who works for Local Trust – a new charity set up to deliver the Big Local programme – to hear about plans so far.

Irene is working in Brereton to help local people – with support from local groups, charities, the public sector and local businesses – come up with a 10-year plan for how to invest their £1m in making their area an even better place to live.

Irene has already met many local residents over the summer, holding a stall at the local fun day, joining residents at a lunch club and chatting with several more at a drop-in session at the parish hall, where people have been eager to tell her what they really like about Brereton and what they would like to see improved.

She said: "Children in Brereton have told me how much they like the park and its facilities, and residents already have some great ideas about how to make Brereton an even better place to live."

An open meeting will be held on September 13 at Brereton and Ravenhill Parish Hall from 7-9pm to hear more and to give your ideas.

Mr Burley said: "It is crucial that this money is spent in the way that residents themselves want to see it used."

Hall picks up grant of £2,000

A VILLAGE hall in Rugeley that is used by numerous community groups has received a £2,000 grant.

Etching Hill Village Hall on East Butts Road, has scooped the cash from Staffordshire County Council.

Organisers will use the cash to replace the doors on the hall.

It follows an application submitted by members with help from Councillor Geoff Martin at the county council.

The hall is used by many local groups including for activities such as bridge, photography, woodturning, and dance.

Traders' plea over town's lotto scheme

SHOPPERS in Rugeley are being urged to sign up for a lottery scheme which supports community events.

The Rugeley Lotto celebrated its first anniversary in April with a record prize amount on offer for one lucky winner.

Each month, from the tickets sold, the winner is awarded 50 per cent of the proceeds. Five per cent goes towards running costs with the remainder used to fund future town centre events .

Angi Cooney, from the Rugeley Traders Association, said it was important to raise the scheme's profile.

Ryan's not thrown by handball hopes

HANDBALL player Ryan Goodwin is already aiming to become an Olympic gold medallist in the 2020 Games.

The 18-year-old from Cannock is off to Denmark for a year to hone his skills to help achieve his ambitious target.

His departure comes just a week after his return from the London Games at the invitation of the British Olympic Association where he was among 140 athletes from across 44 sport disciplines who have been picked out for future stardom.

Minority

Now the former Cardinal Griffin High School pupil, the England Under-18s captain, is determined to help make handball into a major sport in this country. Despite being the second biggest sport in the world behind football, handball is still a minority sport in the UK.

Ryan met Olympians Dame Kelly Holmes, Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean during his stay in London as part of the Olympic Ambitions Programme.

Ryan said: "Kelly Holmes was fantastic. After we spoke and I told her about handball, she went to see her first handball game the next day.

"She is so inspirational," the teenager added.

Handball player Ryan Goodwin, 18, is off to Denmark and could be on his way to becoming an Olympian

Tombola brings in Friends group cash

THE Friends of Hednesford Park raised nearly £300 at a community event in Cannock last weekend.

The group held a teddy tombola stall at The arty in the Park event, raising £289. The money will o towards providing school workshops next month to make lanterns for the Lantern Story Walk in Hednesford Park in October.

Town crier Peter Taunton announced the teddy tombola winner, who was Bradley Scott from Bloxwich. Some ticket winners are still to collect their prizes. They are: Gough on yellow ticket 484, David on yellow ticket 566, K. Brown on pink ticket 692, Michelle Rogers on green ticket 553, Teresa Burgess on yellow ticket 559 and Jones on yellow ticket 554. They are asked to call 07896 239717 to arrange for their prizes to be delivered.

Going for gold

Harry Bridgwater, aged five, of Cannock, Ebony Mansell, eight and Leah Mansell, six, with their handiwork

GOLD, silver and bronze medals were made by Olympic-inspired youngsters at a museum. Children showed off their creative skills by turning paper plates into Olympic medals following on from the success of Team GB. It was the latest in a host of activities held at Walsall Leather Museum, Littleton Street West, over the school summer holidays.

David Mills, assistant curator, said: "It has been very popular. A lot of visitors came and they were all really delighted with it."

Dozens of youngsters have attended Wednesday Clubs at the museum throughout the holidays.

Order made on £23,000 fraud

A BURNTWOOD man has been ordered to pay back more than £23,000 under the Proceeds of Crime Act after being convicted of fraud.

Stafford Crown Court imposed a confiscation order on Neil Hickman of Ironstone Road, Chase Terrace.

Hickman had fraudulently claimed a total of £22,985 in council tax benefit from Lichfield District Council and income support from the Department of Work and Pensions. Having repaid some of this, the £23,384 confiscation order was imposed for £2,251 council tax benefit and £19,432 income support, plus £1,701 interest.

The amount must be paid in full within six months Failure to do so will result in a default sentence of 18 months' imprisonment.

Hickman, aged 53, had previously pleaded guilty at Stafford magistrates court in January to two charges of dishonestly failing to promptly notify each department of a change in his circumstances.

The court heard he did not declare that he had capital over the prescribed limits for claiming these benefits.

Punishment

In March, Hickman was sentenced to an 18-month community punishment order with supervision and the confiscation hearing was set.

Councillor Mike Wilcox, Leader of Lichfield District Council and cabinet member for finance, revenues and benefits, said: "This confiscation orders shows just how seriously the court takes fraud.

"We hope it will serve as a reminder to residents to make sure they are only claiming the benefit they are entitled to."

Nursery get police visit

CHILDREN at a Cannock nursery had a visit from the police – but only as part of an educational topic.

The visit was specially arranged by Happy Tots Nursery, at Orbital Plaza, Bridgtown, to help the children learn about "People Who Help Us".

The youngsters listened about what being a police officer involves and what the numbers on the badges mean.

They also learned about using 999 and were given the chance to sit in a real police car and question the officer about his work.

Inquest on ex-plumber

A CORONER recorded an industrial death verdict on an ex-plumber from Rugeley.

James Perry, aged 86, of Queen Street, was admitted to Stafford Hospital on February 3. He died on February 16.

South Staffordshire Cor-oner Andrew Haigh, sitting in Cannock, said the cause of death was septicaemia with a C-difficile infection resulting from a bowel operation.

He said: "Following sur-gery things appeared to be quite encouraging. Sadly he soon developed a chest infection and linked with the antibiotics given to him began to develop C-difficile."

Youngsters dig in for garden task

Jenny Corbett, aged 17, digs in

YOUNGSTERS came up smelling of roses when they redesigned an old people's garden in Huntington with an Olympic theme.

Over a six-week period, the 15-strong team of teenagers transformed the garden at Naden House, a sheltered housing scheme managed by Care Plus on behalf of South Staffordshire Housing Association.

The work included designing an area of the garden with the Olympic rings, fashioned out of coloured gravel, producing a crown sculptured from willow as a reminder of the Diamond Jubilee, transforming a herb and apple garden and decorating the sun room. Each volunteer, aged 16 and 17, spent a minimum of 30 hours working on the scheme as part of the Summer of a Lifetime programme.

The scheme was organised by Staffordshire Council of Voluntary Youth Services, on behalf of the 'V' Inspired project.

The young people chose to work on the garden project after a bid from Naden House to the youth service to be involved in an intergenerational project to break down age barriers.

Project

The young people raised nearly £2000, both in donations of goods and cash, to make the improvements. Dobbies Garden Centre and Wickes were two of the companies which donated materials

Di Wallace, Care Plus' supported living co-ordinator at Naden House, said: "The older people in our scheme have been excited and overwhelmed by the work done by the young people.

"Not only has it created a permanent reminder of what has proved to be a momentous year, but our residents have really enjoyed building up relationships with the teenagers.

"The young people have done a fantastic job and we can't thank them enough."

Lisa Corbett, a development worker at the Staffordshire Council of Voluntary Youth Services, said: "We are so proud of how the young people have planned and delivered the project in conjunction with the residents of Naden House.

"Everyone has been really pleased with their commitment and enthusiasm."

Free meals for children

FREE children's meals are on offer at pubs in Cannock and Rugeley over the Bank Holiday weekend.

The Academy, at 83 High Greeen, Cannock, and the Glassworks in Brewery Street, Rugeley, is putting on the 'Kids Eat Free' offer.

The promotion runs from August 25 to 27 and applies to every adult's main meal ordered.

Kate Eastwood from the Barracuda Pub Group, the company that owns and operates both pubs said: "We wanted to give our customers the opportunity to get together as a family and enjoy some of the great food available at the pub."

There will also be a disco and raffle with prizes such as a golf day at Market Drayton, overnight stay at a hotel in Birmingham and free car service.

Man who burgled pensioner jailed

A BURGLAR who followed an 82-year-old pensioner into his home and attempted to steal hundreds of pounds of goods has been jailed for three-and-a-half years.

Mark Clarke trailed partially-sighted William Price as he walked back to his Walsall Wood home after collecting his pension.

Wolverhampton Crown Court heard the 45-year-old collected a televison, DVDs and computer games worth a total of £600 but was disturbed by a relative of Mr Price's. Clarke fled the scene with only a screwdriver.

Mr Mark Rees, prosecuting, said: "He removed a television from a bedroom. He placed various items into a holdall, a large number of DVDs and Wii games.

"He got everything ready and bundled up downstairs for their removal. Fortunately, he wasn't able to get away with them."

Clarke, of Bridgewater Close, Walsall Wood, was later tracked down and arrested. He initially denied the June 1 offence but later admitted a charge of burglary.

Mr Nayan Patel, mitigating, said Clarke had known his victim and was ashamed of what he had done.

He told the court: "Nothing was taken other than a screwdriver which was later returned."

Vulnerable

Judge John Warner said Clarke had a bad criminal record and since 2008 had been hauled before the courts for a total of nine offences of burglary, attempted burglary or theft.

Sentencing Clarke, Judge Warner told him: "This man was 82 years old, partially-sighted and had arthritis. I do regard him as a vulnerable victim. You took advantage of him."

He said the act had been made worse by the fact that Clarke had been on licence for burglary at the time.

EATING OUT

Dishing up a reputation for more than 40 years

CANNOCK'S longest-established Indian restaurant picked up deserved recognition at the Cannock Chase Business Awards.

Padma Lounge, High Green, a Cannock Chase Business Award winner

The Padma was named the winner of the best leisure/entertainment category at last month's inaugural ceremony. It was just reward for a restaurant that has been dishing up fine Asian cuisine since 1971. The prized certificate hangs proudly on the wall, alongside a price list dating back to when the restaurant first opened.

There has been upheaval during those 40 years, with the restaurant moving from its previous prominent site in Walsall Road to new brighter premises at High Green. But with its name comes its reputation, and the change of venue has done no harm to the business.

Owner Tarak Ludhi said it was still a favourite for many familiar faces, while there is also a steady stream of new clientele. These can expect a pleasant greeting at a clean and tidy restaurant, with well-planned seating and above all, good food.

There are many menu items – several with intriguing-sounding names – that I had never come across before, particularly the choices for tandoori grill mains. Fish lovers cannot go wrong while House specialties include a Padma Lounge Special, a birthday special called Ogni Murog and something called a Coxi Chicken. Chefs recommendations include lal kumro, aka red pumpkin.

Stuffed begun and stuffed peppers were among the tempting starters, but we opted only for the poppadums before tucking into our mains of coriander marinated salmon and butter chicken.

It was hashtagwell-yums, if we are talking social network language. As expected, the staff are friendly and courteous, but diners are left to eat their meal in peace. Instead, it takes a wireless call system placed on the table to order drinks or food, ask for service or to ask for the bill.

It had to be done, so used it to call for dessert, a 'Nutty Donatella' since you ask.

Call the Padma on 01543 502101 or visit www.padmalounge.co.uk

Follow the clear on-pack step-by-step recipe suggestion and enjoy – minimum effort, maximum taste. You can also take part in the Facebook competition – all you need to do is 'Like' the Discovery Facebook page and a 'magic word' will be posted on the Discovery page days before the roadshow in Birmingham.

If you come and see the team and say the 'magic word' to a member of the Discovery team between the relevant times, you will get a free gift. For more about the roadshow, to share your fajita experience and for product give-aways and recipes, visit: http://www.facebook.com/discoveryfoods

Mirror Mirror is a Snow White update

Julia Roberts portrays the evil queen,while Lily Collins is Snow White in Mirror Mirror

DVDs

FAIRY tale revamps have been all the rage recently, particulary the story of Snow White. We have had Once Upon A Time and Grimm on TV and the movies Snow White and the Huntsman and Mirror Mirror (PG).

The latter is now on DVD and is a good-looking enjoyable romp reminiscent of The Princess Bride and Time Bandits. There is plenty of humour but the movie lacks menace as Julia Roberts' queen is more bitchy than bad.

Western fans will enjoy handsome horse opera Comanche Moon (12), a two-disc epic from US TV based on part of Larry McMurtry's best-selling Lonesome Dove. The excellent trio of Val Kilmer, Steve Zahn and Karl Urban play Texas Rangers in the 1850s.

Summer of Arcade lacks 'wow' factor

Xbox360 games

THIS year's Summer of Arcade crop of new titles to download via Xbox Live Arcade have been something of a disappointment, lacking the wow factor of such previous titles as Limbo or 'Splosion Man.

It began in July with an HD upgrade of Tony Hawk's Pro Skater, which will have been enjoyed by the kick and flip crowd, followed by the fun for half an hour Wreckateer. This shallow Kinect game blends elements of Angry Birds and Fable as the player uses a catapult to demolish goblins' castles.

Sci-fi shooter Hybrid jetpacked onto the scene. This multi-player only title does have plenty of plus points but those seeking deathmatch thrills are better catered for elsewhere.

That brings us to the season's best two titles, both side-scrolling games, the moody zombie survival title Deadlight and the beautiful looking animated adventure Dust: An Elysian Tale. Prices range from 800 to 1200 Microsoft points.

Meanwhile, motor racing fans looking for a downloadable new title can get off-road thrills with the efficient dirt-sprayer Jeremy McGrath's Offroad.

A snip at 800 Microsoft points, it's got upgrades, multiplayer, HD and lots of fender-bender action with buggies and trucks on a nice array of terrains. LB

A Dream-like production

A Midsummer Night's Dream (As You Like It), Royal Shakespeare Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon

RUSSIAN director Dmitry Krymov and his Moscow company's original take on 'the Dream' for the World Shakespeare Festival was to ditch it entirely and instead perform their version of the play within the play, Pyramus and Thisbe.

This highly imaginative production blended drama, circus, opera and the spirit of Monty Python... it even had an acrobatic dog who, inevitably, stole the show. In a set designed like an unfinished theatre, the Russian company brought along their own audience members to pass cynical remarks about the tragic love story performed by these 'rude mechanicals', as Shakespeare called the workmen turned actors.

Spectacle

There were English captions on screen for the Russian dialogue but this wasn't important as Krymov's play was a spectacle, dream-like and sometimes nightmarish.

The actors manipulated two giant clanking and creaking makeshift puppets of the lovers Pyramus and Thisbe.

Their interaction to beautifully sung German operatic arias was eerie, funny and poignant at the same time.

Krymov's play had a short run at the theatre but will live long in the memories of those who saw it.

NEWS

Officer is dedicated for Barr Beacon

A NEW officer appointed to help boost community use at Barr Beacon, Aldridge, has been welcomed by councillors.

Martin Harrison has been appointed for three years to boost activities at the landmark, which has views over Cannock Chase.

It comes as a £440,000 Heritage Lottery funded project to restore Barr Beacon gets under way.

Potential

Mr Harrison will work with residents, community groups, voluntary groups, schools and others to "maximise Barr Beacon's potential".

Councillor Adrian Andrew, chairman of the Barr Beacon Trust, said: "We're delighted to welcome Martin to Walsall in this important role which is all about involving local residents."

The three-year restoration project will see the war memorial monument, which has been hit by metal thieves, restored.

Firefighters call for support in station of the year contest

FIREFIGHTERS from Aldridge are urging people to get behind them as they aim to be named the West Midlands' station of the year. Aldridge Fire Station is one of five shortlisted for the accolade.

by Catherine Dalton

It follows a dedicated community campaign to make Aldridge and Brownhills a safer place to live, which has resulted in minor arson and anti-social behaviour fires falling by some 70 per cent.

There has also been a 50 per cent fall in arson vehicle blazes.

Fire chiefs are calling on the people of Aldridge to show their support if they think the station deserves to be recognised in the Aspire Awards.

Watch commander Steve Palmer said workers were "delighted" to have been shortlisted for the award.

He said he believed the crews' proactive community work had earned them the nomination.

"We're really pleased to be nominated then shortlisted and it would be great if people in Aldridge would log on to vote for us if they think we have been doing a good job," he said.

"As a station we have been driving forward some real community projects."

Firefighters have visited areas where there has been a history of fires, offering safety advice and smoke alarms. Mr Palmer said crews had also contacted businesses to see if they needed advice in attaining all the necessary fire regulation certificates.

Local doctors surgeries and community groups who go out into homes in Aldridge have also been contacted, urging them to be another pair of eyes to highlight possible fire hazards.

Voting, which can be done at www.wmfs.net, closes on September 7. Awards will be announced on October 12.

Night walk to boost hospice

WOMEN are being urged to sign up for the Starlight Walk being held in Aldridge in aid of St Giles Walsall Hospice.

Participants can choose between a 3.75 mile course or the 7.5 mile trek – that's one or two laps of the village.

The female-only fundraiser takes place on Saturday, September 22, from Aldridge Community Centre at 8pm. Entry £15.

Hundreds of women are expected to turn up in fancy dress for the fun-filled fundraiser.

Helen Relihan, head of fundraising for St Giles, said: "There's still plenty of time left for women to sign up to the Starlight Walk – but with places strictly limited, it's best to act now.

"This poignant evening walk is an ideal way for women of all fitness levels to remember a loved one or to support St Giles."

Call (01922) 602528 or visit www.stgileshospice.com/starlight-walk website.

Plans for 40 homes at school site axed

MOVES to build more than 40 homes on the site of a former school in Aldridge are in doubt after plans were withdrawn.

The scheme for the old Redhouse JMI, Gorsey Way, were lodged with Walsall Council and included three and four-bedroom houses.

Properties have been earmarked as part of a transformation of the site for residential purposes.

Plans for a £300,000 community centre were recently scrapped because of a lack of interest.

Concern

There were concerns from residents about having such a centre.

The project had been in the pipeline for a number of years after funding was set aside and had been concerns about the lack of a building for community events.

The school closed in 2006 due to falling pupil numbers and was demolished after a series of fires.

The council most recently approved 24 homes on the site.

Top acts at V make sure the sun never sets on festival fun

AROUND 90,000 revellers descended on a sun-kissed Weston Park for a V Festival to remember. A host of top acts including The Stone Roses, The Killers, Tinie Tempah, Noel Gallagher's High Flying Birds, Snow Patrol and Ed Sheeran wowed jubilant crowds over the two-day event.

Comedians get crowds rocking with laughter

IT WAS not all about the music at V Festival – a fourth stage provided welcome relief for the eardrums as some of the UK's top comedians had people laughing in the aisles.

Sean Lock and Milton Jones were among those to perform as fans lapped up the classic varied assortment of acts found at V every year.

And Tim Minchin's unique brand of musical comedy proved particularly popular.

After bounding on stage like a rock star, piano player Minchin, who was born in England and raised in Australia, launched into an entirely musical set.

An adoring crowd either hung on his every word or sang along in unison as Minchin tackled issues such as religion or prejudice, all approached with his trademark cheeky grin.

Despite a mixed forecast there was glorious sunshine on both days, although wellies were still part of the V uniform as areas of the campsite and music arena turned into mud baths thanks to overnight rain.

But a bit of mud could not dampen the spirits of the huge crowds who enjoyed V's usual eclectic mix of acts.

Saturday's headliners, and long-time V favourites, The Killers produced an exhilarating set, drawing songs from their three top 10 albums and previewing new material from the as-yet unreleased Battle Born.

Old favourites Madness and Tom Jones and hot new things Emeli Sande and Frank Turner attracted huge crowds.

There was a Britpop flavour to the 4Music stage thanks to Dodgy, Shed Seven and The Charlatans, while Noel Gallagher's Oasis-heavy set was the perfect excuse for an evening singsong.

Other big hits over the weekend were Example, David Guetta, Olly Murs, Rizzle Kicks, Keane and Wolverhampton songstress Beverley Knight.

But fans of Nicki Minaj were left disappointed when she cancelled her appearance at the last minute citing strained vocal chords, with LMFAO filling in her headline slot.

Tickets for next year's V Festival were due to go on sale from 9am on Wednesday, at 2012 prices.

Stone Roses Ian Brown during their storming set

Oh, yes, they are adored!

Stone Roses

THEY were making their V Festival debut shortly after reforming following a 15-year hiatus. But Manchester indie rockers The Stone Roses – arguably the biggest draw of the weekend – seemed right at home on the V stage as they delivered a storming set.

In front of a jubilant crowd the Roses rattled off hit after hit in a performance lasting 90 minutes.

Front man Ian Brown welcomed the crowd by saying "Yeah? We're The Stone Roses" before launching into seminal Madchester song I Wanna Be Adored.

After such a big build-up to what could be their final festival appearance in the UK, the first half of the show seemed a little low key, but the quartet moved through the gears in the second half with a string of anthems.

Fools' Gold and Love Spreads earned wild appreciation from the crowd before The Is The One and She Bangs The Drums preceded hallmark set-closer I Am The Resurrection.

There were hugs all round from the grinning band – whose relations became severely strained after their split in 1996 – when they took unrestrained acclaim as a spectacular fireworks display polished things off perfectly for the weekend.

Make theatre date for Calendar Girls

A CANNOCK-based drama society is to be one of the first amateur groups in the country to perform the hit play Calendar Girls.

Based on a group of WI women who create a stir with their fundraising poses, Calendar Girls was first made into a hit film starring the likes of Julie Walters and Celia Imrie.

A West End version followed and now it has been released for amateur production with the Cannock Chase Drama Society one of the first to put on a version.

It takes place at the Prince of Wales Centre, in Church Street from September 13 to 15. Start time each night is 7.30, with a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm. Tickets are £10 or £9 concessions, with part of the royalties going to Leukaemia Research.

Tack concert set to benefit charity

PUNK, rock 'n' roll, Irish and indie music comes together for one night at the Tackeroo in Hednesford this weekend.

A charity gig at the Bracken Close, Brindley Heath venue features Jimmy and the Hound Dogs, The Idiot Club, plus young indie rockers Cal 22.

It kicks off at 8.30pm on Saturday (August 25) with admission at £5.

All proceeds will go to Paul's Fun Fund –a charity providing treats and days out for young adult chemotherapy patients at New Cross Hospital, Wolverhampton.

Katie Derham

BBC Proms 2012
BBC2, 8pm

It's easy to classify 19th-century theatrical duo Gilbert and Sullivan's works as comedies. However that viewpoint fails to take into account the fabulously dark operetta The Yeomen of the Guard, which is performed here in a partial staging from the Royal Albert Hall in London. Jane Glover conducts the BBC Concert Orchestra and BBC Singers through the piece, which features baritone Leigh Melrose as Lt Sir Richard Cholmondeley, alongside tenor Andrew Kennedy, soprano Lisa Milne and mezzos Victoria Simmonds and Felicity Palmer. Katie Derham presents.

Inspector George Gently
BBC1, 8.30pm

There's nothing like a good, old-fashioned crime drama to entertain us on a Sunday evening, and they don't come much better than Inspector George Gently. When we catch up with Gently and Bacchus, the year is 1968 and as racial unrest sweeps the US, the National Front is wreaking havoc in Britain. But in Newcastle, racial harmony can be found in dance parties known as "all-nighters". Sadly, the peace and friendship of these events is shattered when a young black girl, Dolores Kenny, is found dead at one of them.

Pick of the Week

Hoping to keep the feel good factor going

We're a sturdy old nation if nothing else. For those of us who sat through the nail-biting Olympic Games – from the opening ceremony through the emotional wins and near-wins of Team GB, to that surprise-laden closing ceremony, we have certainly done ourselves proud.

The eyes of the world have been on us since we celebrated the Queen's Jubilee back in June, and we haven't once crumbled – but the pressure is far from off, as the next stint of the Games is officially declared open in London 2012 Paralympic Games Opening Ceremony.

Due to the success of the Olympics, ticket sales for the Paralympics have soared and, at the time of writing, the surge had meant it was on track be the first to sell out in the event's 52-year history. London 2012-fever is as rife as ever, something that former Paralympic swimmer Rachael Latham is intensely proud of. She said: "When we won the bid, and everybody was saying how the Paralympics will be so much bigger, I always wondered how they were going to make sure it was on par with the Olympics. And the best thing is that I don't think they've needed to do that much [to promote it] – people simply want it to be [a big hit]. Everyone is excited for the Paralympics, which I don't think we've ever had before. It definitely wasn't like that when I was racing in Beijing. I think it's going to be a new era for the Paralympics."

Rachael is the current European record holder for 200m butterfly, world record holder for 50m butterfly and 200m backstroke British record holder. She took part in two finals in the Beijing Paralympics, but an injury meant she had to retire from competitive swimming in 2009, and couldn't be involved in London 2012 – at least not in the way she had previously known. However, she is on presenting duties and will be covering all the action down on the front line for Channel 4 – and that's the next best thing, according to Rachael.

She explains: "There was no way I wasn't going to get involved in London 2012. When I couldn't go with swimming, I just had to find a new way to be able to get there.

"Obviously I'm an athlete at heart and I always will be but I couldn't have asked for anything more than to be part of the media. Channel 4 is going to do a great job and I'm so excited."

But let's not get ahead of ourselves - as the opening ceremony gets underway, Channel 4 stalwarts Jon Snow and Krishnan Guru-Murthy present from what promises to be a phenomenal start to the occasion; especially given that the Paralympics originated in the UK in 1948.

We can expect a spectacle that challenges perceptions of human possibility, including a fly past by Aerobility, a British charity that trains disabled people to become pilots, a parade of all the competing nations, and, of course, the official entrance of the Paralympic Flame.

Jon Snow presents the ceremony from the Olympic Stadium, London 2012 Paralympic Games Opening Ceremony, Wednesday, Channel 4, 8pm

Best of the Rest

MONDAY

Harry's Mountain Heroes

ITV1, 9pm

This inspiring one-off documentary follows five soldiers who were wounded on the battlefields of Iraq and Afghanistan, but who are now preparing to take on one of the biggest challenges on Earth – scaling Mount Everest. Although Prince Harry (or as the Olympic announcers call him, Prince Henry) was unable to take part in the climb because of other commitments, he has been there to support captains Martin Hewitt and David Wiseman, privates Jaco van Gass and Karl Hinett, and doctor Francis Atkinson in his role as both a patron and a friend. He even turns up to see them off at Heathrow as they prepare to fly to Nepal. But even with a royal to inspire them, the challenge of trying to reach the top is fraught with danger.

New Tricks

BBC1, 9pm

When Jack Halford (James Bolam) ended the last series of the detective drama by telling his boss Sandra (Amanda Redman) that he didn't really care whether he lived or died, most viewers didn't give it that much thought. After all, it wouldn't be the first time a run had ended with the threat that an old dog was going to give up on New Tricks. However, this time around it seems Jack actually meant it, as he shocks Sandra, Brian (Alun Armstrong) and Gerry (Dennis Waterman) by announcing his resignation. The team are keen to find out why, but shadowy Whitehall official Stephen Fisher (Tim McInnerny) wants them to put their skills to a very different use.

TUESDAY

ACCUSED

BBC1, 9pm

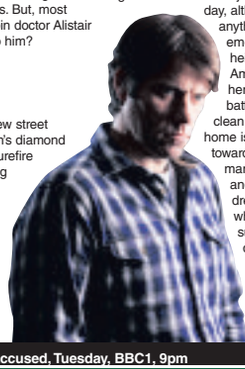
Liverpudlian comedian John Bishop has done the odd acting role in the past, but this week's drama really gives him something to get his teeth into. He plays Peter, a father of two whose wife is dying. Peter tries to ease the pain his teenage sons Stephen and Dom will feel, and is pleased to have the help and support of palliative care nurse Charlotte. But eventually, after his mum's death, Stephen suspects that Charlotte may not be the saintly figure his dad thinks she is, and begins to be plagued by doubts and anxieties. But, most puzzling of all, why does former spin doctor Alistair Campbell keep appearing to talk to him?

WEDNESDAY

BRITAIN THEN AND NOW

ITV1, 9pm

In June this year, many people threw street parties to help celebrate the Queen's diamond jubilee – and that proved to be a surefire way of getting to know the folk living around them. One such bunch of residents from east London were tasked with recreating the same style of bash that would have gone on in 1953, when the Coronation took place. All they had to go on to help them were a handful of photographs of the event that happened on their road all those years ago – until they managed to track down some of the original partygoers. The research and organisation revealed some fascinating social changes that have happened in the decades since, as this documentary reveals.



Accused, Tuesday, BBC1, 9pm

THURSDAY

BRITAIN BY NIGHT

ITV1, 9pm

If we're to believe news reports and certain sections of the media, Britain is a dangerous place at night. But it's actually a minority of folk who suffer during the wee small hours; the rest of us get on with our lives just as we would during the day, although if this documentary is anything to go by, thoughts and emotions can be more heightened once darkness falls. Among the people featured here is Tony, whose constant battle to keep London's streets clean once the crowds have gone home is tempered by his feelings toward the break-up of his marriage. But it's not all doom and gloom; Indian bride Nisha's dream is about to come true, while midwife Natalie supervises an emotional delivery.

FRIDAY

UEFA SUPER CUP LIVE

ITV1, 7.30pm

The Stade Louis II stadium in Monaco plays host to the 36th staging of the Super Cup, as last season's Champions League winners Chelsea take on Europa League victors Atletico Madrid. Both sides have won this competition once in their history, with neither doing so as European champions. Chelsea's only success came when they beat Atletico's cross-city rivals Real on this ground in 1998 thanks to a solitary goal from Gustavo Poyet, while the Mattress Makers defeated Inter Milan 2-0 in 2010. Di Matteo and Simeone have turned round the fortunes of their clubs over a short period of time, bringing unexpected success at the highest level against the odds, and both men will be keen to win this piece of silverware to enhance their growing reputations.

In with the Flynns

BBC1, 9pm

They may be as predictable as night following day, but the traditional British sitcom will be a staple of small-screen entertainment long after we're all pushing up the daisies. For newcomers, this one stars Will Mellor and Niky Wardley as a couple raising three children, while having to deal with an irresponsible brother and a grumpy dad. This week, Liam attempts to earn some extra cash by giving personal training lessons. However, the plan backfires when Julie, his first client, wants more from him than just training. Meanwhile, Kevin is heartbroken when he splits with Naimah. Will Mellor, Warren Clarke, Niky Wardley, Alex Carter, Daniel Rogers, Lorenzo Rodriguez and Nadine Mulkerrin star.

Your essential guide to the world of motoring compiled by Motoring Editor Sharon Walters

Upbeat on this VW despite the name!

The only way is up! Volkswagen have come up with a nifty number at the right price

Let's get something out of the way first . . . why do car companies settle on ridiculous or even comedic names to call new models?

Silly question really, we all know it's down to marketing and focus teams trying to validate their vast fees on such tasks.

Volkswagen has not really fallen into that pit too deep but the name of their latest city car has been the object of some derision.

up! (yes the lower case initial letter and exclamation mark are part of the name) is a totally new car from the marque, a sub-Polo sized vehicle in the wake of the Fox and the Lupo. Animal names are not so bad even though we have one English and one Italian in the former and latter. But Up! is dreadful, it looks ridiculous in the middle of a sentence and even incorrect. Exclamation marks are meant for emphasis at the end of sentences. So I shall just refer to it as the Up hereon.

With the pressure on motoring costs, demand for sub-compact cars has grown enormously and sales are impressive. So the Up is a good move for Volkswagen in the marketplace which includes the lovely Fiat 500.

I love the modern 500 because it reminds me of the days of the original model, a time of carefree days as a student when I drove to university in and old but endearing bubble.

And I found, to my surprise, that I like the Up. It is good looking front and back and inside that continues. While the entry level may be a little basic for not much more money you can get a trim level that is well fitted out. You can also make the car your very own with well-priced options for personalisation - from the dashboard to the wheels.

Then we come to the added attraction above the 500 - the space inside. The 3.5 metre Up really does surprise. Four can be transported with some comfort and no elbow bashing for up to six footers. While the boot may be small in terms of space between the seats and boot lip, it is deep and the rear seats are standard with split capability.

Powering the up! is a new generation of three-cylinder petrol engines, with outputs of 60 and 75 PS.

Consumption

Combined fuel consumption for the 60 PS BlueMotion Technology model is 68.9 mpg on the combined cycle with CO2 emissions of 95 g/km; even the more powerful 75 PS unit stays under the 100 g barrier with just 98 g/km. The fuel economy they give is very good, although if you want to press on and work the engines hard, watch that figure slump

Parking is easy, there's good steering, it glides around town and even on motorways and it also rides well even when you take it out on some of Shropshire's pothole strewn country lanes. The gearchange is precise and clutch and brake pedals are nicely weighted and progressive, making it very easy to drive smoothly.

Three versions are available: Take up!, Move up! and High up! with prices starting at £7,995 All are competitively priced and offer a high level of standard equipment. Two special edition models – the up! black and up! white – which are based on the High up! are also available. All models have a raft of safety features including ABS and four airbags, while all except Take up! also have standard ESP. An important new safety technology in the up! is the optional award-winning City Emergency Braking system which at speeds of under 19 mph detects the risk of an impending collision and can reduce accident severity by initiating automatic brake interventions that can even avoid a crash.

The up! is one of only a few vehicles in the segment to be offered with this function. It also has a top score in the Euro NCAP tests. A lot in an unusually named package!

The revised CBR1000RR Fireblade took a bow at Le Mans and Imola

Iconic Honda given a makeover

HONDA'S revised CBR1000RR Fireblade for 2012 is a model which celebrates 20 years of this iconic sports bike following its debut as in 1992.

The machine was revealed simultaneously at two world class racing events – the Le Mans 24 hours round of the Endurance World Championship and the 11th round of the World Superbike Championship in Imola, to great praise from attending race-goers.

The revised Fireblade sports new styling with a more angular front end, layered main fairing and revised tail section, with new front and rear suspension providing a key new feature.

Introduced for the first time on a production motorcycle, an advanced new rear shock uses a double-tube design to ensure smoother and more accurate response, superior damping and improved traction.

The front features inverted 43mm telescopic front forks with Showa's Big Piston technology, offering improved damping, increased front tyre grip and better stability under braking.

The two combined provide for unrivalled traction without the need for electronic aids.

Memorable

New fuel injection settings for the 999cc inline-4 engine will make throttle response even smoother and easier to use, particularly at smaller throttle openings, while the stylish 12-spoke cast aluminium wheels provide more consistent rigidity around the whole wheel to work with the new forks to deliver improved handling. On hand to unveil the new machine were John McGuinness, 17 times TT winner and racing at Le Mans for the Honda TT Legends Team,and Jonathan Rea, rider for the Castrol Honda Team in the World Superbike Championship.

McGuinness said: "I've got a real soft spot for the Fireblade.

"I've ridden it in many of its evolutions and different racing events over the years and had a lot of success with it.

"In fact, some of the most memorable moments of my career have been on the Fireblade.

Rea added: "I feel like I have grown up with the Fireblade. It's such an iconic machine and it's an unbelievable feeling being the man to actually reveal the latest version."

Supermini gets in tune with driver satisfaction

A touch of luxury has been added to Honda's new Jazz Hybrid – as well as more safety features

HONDA'S Jazz sales success has been music to the ears of the Japanese giant since the supermini was launched in 2002.

It hit the market as a small, yet roomy car with good engines, cheap to buy and run and was an instant hit with buyers.

The car is still hitting the right note as it continues to sell with both petrol and part hybrid model, finding favour with both business and private buyers. Even better, the hybrid offers a claimed 65-odd mpg and low CO2 emissions, making it a cheap business option to run. As a result, used models are much in demand the British built supermini has been named Britain's Best Used Supermini by consumer champions Which?

The annual Which? Car Survey results are based on good reliability and owner satisfaction, plus a high score in the road test. Experts praised the Jazz's class-leading space and versatility, bullet-proof reliability, strong resale values and the fact it's easy and safe to drive.

The results also took into account positive feedback from Jazz owners.

A mini-makeover last year tweaked the look of the car with revised front and rear bumpers and on the tested Hybrid, the front grille, headlights and tail lamps all finished in a chrome blue surround to mark it out from the petrol models.

The Hybrid has the same powertrain as found in the Insight – the 1.3-litre i-VTEC petrol engine with Honda's IMA electric motor technology and automatic CVT gearbox with paddle shifts, which also reduces CO2 emissions to 104g/km. These figures mean free road tax for the first year and only £10 per year thereafter.

Inside the message is a bit more mixed, with swish leather trimmed steering wheel with inbuilt controls on the tested model contrasting sharply with the budget black plastic trim on dash. Leather upholstery is now available to give the car a more luxurious touch.

The fascia features a three-dial instrument cluster with central speedometer, tachometer and fuel gauge.

The ECON switch is situated to the right of the steering wheel tells the car's management system to adopt specific settings and combined with the stop/go system improves fuel consumption.

Throttle

The dashboard also features Eco Assist which uses the ambient lighting of the speedometer to show the driver how economically they are driving.

It glows green when the car is at its most economical and gradually turns blue as the driver exceeds the best balance of throttle or braking. It does concentrate the mind on economical driving, despite the car having plenty of zip.

For safety, dual front and side airbags are standard, as are full length side curtain airbags and three-point seatbelts.

Also featured is hill start, stability programme and traction control as well as pedestrian protection additions.

Atom racing cars will all run on 2.0-litre Honda Type R iVTEC engines, Yokohama will provide tyres.

Ariel's Atom supercar to race in own cup series

A CYNIC will point out that the success of any of Britain's famous motoring brands is all down to foreign investment and management, with names such as Rolls Royce, Bentley, Aston Martin, Jaguar and Land Rover all benefiting from varying degrees of European influence.

But in a quiet corner of Somerset, an entirely home-grown car manufacturer continues to buck the trend.

The Ariel Motor Company in partnership with Atomic Race Management has announced plans for the Atom Cup, a new UK-based race series featuring the ultra-light Ariel Atom supercar.

Designed and built by Ariel Motor Company in Somerset, the Atom has become an icon of minimalist design and lightweight performance with a power to weight ratio in excess of most supercars.

Spanning eight race weekends at the UK's best circuits, from Brands Hatch to Silverstone, the Atom Cup will feature matched Atoms in full race specification.

Engines, ECU and dampers will all be sealed and the cars will run on control tyres supplied by Yokohama, which is sponsoring the series.

All cars will be powered by the legendary 2.0 Honda Type R iVTEC engine and the series is also supported by Honda.

Paul Ormond of Honda UK said: "We are very excited by the opportunity to support this new series. Competition has always been at the heart of Honda and the Atom Cup should provide some exciting racing."

Simon Saunders, director of Ariel, said: "This is something that we've talked about for a while and we have spent a lot of time getting the details exactly right, from the car right through to the catering.

"Our aim is to provide fair, competitive and enjoyable racing at reasonable costs to drivers who want to progress from track days, young guys who want to move into professional motorsport and simply those who love racing."

Car retailers stay upbeat over 2012

A SURVEY carried out by used car supplier grs, based at Cold Meece, near Stafford, has found that 71 per cent of car retailers say the first half of 2012 was better than last year.

Many are upbeat about the rest of 2012 as they adapt to changing market conditions and receive a boost from the 'feel-good' factor of the Olympic Games.

Nearly three-quarters (71 per cent) of retailers surveyed believed the first six months were better or as good as in 2011, while one in three are more optimistic now than at the start of 2012.

grs, part of the Greenhouse Group, supplies more than 6,500 franchised and independent car retailers across the UK with quality used cars and commercial vehicles for their forecourts.

The leading remarketing company operates a purpose-built logistics centre which can hold up to 4,500 vehicles at any one time.Managing director Theo Kortland said: "The research shows that there is still a healthy market for good quality used cars and vans.

"After all, people still need them to get to work, go shopping or take the children to school.

He added: "That's where grs can help by providing retailers with a reliable supply of good vehicles."

Demand

The positive findings chime with the latest figures from the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders which reported that new car sales were up 3.5per cent in June, while May's 7.9per cent rise was a 23-month record, reflecting improved demand from private buyers.

Looking ahead to the next six months, the retailers surveyed by grs were more evenly split – with more than a third expecting the positive news to continue, while a further third are yet to be convinced that the improvement will last.

Audi A1 Sportback eases into family life

Splendid Sportback – the A1 is arguably the best looking Audi on the street

The quality of the cabin is enhanced by a minimalistic dashboard

IT had to happen sometime. The call finally came in for the comfortable and tough Q5 to go back home, and so it needed to be replaced with something different.

It just so happened that the call came in at the same time as the Audi A1 Sportback appeared in the UK, and the chance to run around in one for six months raised an obvious question: in this era of belt-tightening and downsizing, can you really switch from a big SUV to a super-mini? Too late to back out now.

My plans to pamper the A1 from the day it arrived were even more quickly destroyed. The need to travel to various parts of the country, cope with the shopping and even handle my two young kids on a weekend away meant the A1 simply had to get on with it.

Despite being as good as half the size of the mid-sized SUV, the A1 did a fine job of carrying me, two boys in car seats and all of the gear.

Sure the boot was stuffed to the gills and I had to use the footwells a little, but this is a B-segment hatchback; the fact that you can utilise all of its footprint is a real bonus.

And having become thoroughly fed up of paying through the nose for diesel, the A1 had to be a petrol, particularly because Audi is one of those firms at the forefront of the petrol renaissance.

Cylinder

So this particular Sportback runs the 1.4-litre TFSI with 122PS (that's 120bhp in old money) hitched up to the seven-speed S tronic transmission.

Sadly the even more impressive 1.4 turbo with cylinder deactivation isn't available yet, but this version perfectly covers all the bases.

It has usefully more poke than the 1.2 TFSI and with a 0-62mph time of nine seconds flat, it qualifies as a warm hatch in my book. Yet it clocks up an official 53.3mpg combined and just 122g/km of CO2.

Of course, you have to drive it appropriately to get those figures, and to be perfectly honest I've not yet managed to restrain myself.

The trouble is it feels far too sporty to be driven like an eco-special, at least when you're as easily influenced as me.

With the S tronic box, you can keep both hands on the wheel, and although it's turbocharged, you do need to rev it a little to extract maximum performance – hence it's not yet doing 50 miles per gallon.

This wasn't helped by the fact it went to visit its glamorous big brother in the shape of the R8 GT Spyder.

By Matt Joy

They share more than just a body colour, too: OK so I'm not going to tell you the A1 is the perfect substitute for a £130,000 supercar, but the A1 is huge fun on a back road chiefly because it is small, relatively light and responsive.

The Sport trim brings with it stiffer suspension and although you might wish for the softer SE when you're traversing the worst pot holes the UK can offer, the trade off is well worth it.

And if you spec it right, the A1 Sportback can look like a junior hot hatch, too. Upgrade to one of the pretty 17in wheels designs for around £500 and you have the looks to go with the performance.

You can even add a rear spoiler and a modest body kit for a few pounds more. Regardless of any option box ticking, the A1 is arguably the best looking Audi on the street.

The way the bonnet wraps into the front wings is just like the TT, and the extra pair of doors are seamlessly integrated into the shape. It's also hard not to like small cars; the A1 pulls off wearing the premium four rings of Audi and doesn't suffer for it either.

It might be a small Audi but you still get all the big Audi stuff. The cabin is a real quality piece of work and depending on how much you decide to spend, it can have all the bells and whistles.

Yet it doesn't suffer from a rash of buttons and instead has an appealingly minimalist dashboard that feels expensive, and little details like the screen that simply folds away by clicking it into place show some real thought.

It's been a busy month but the A1 Sportback has dived right in and got on with the job. Next month I promise a) to wash it a lot more and b) to stop driving it flat out all the time to give it a chance of making the right fuel economy.

Before you blame your car for not making the combined figure, take a look at yourself . . .

The Lexus LS features 'Climate Concierge' – 13 sensors to accurately control the cabin temperature

Sport trim and sharper styling for new Lexus LS

DETAILS of the new Lexus LS have emerged, with the car adopting the sharper styling seen on the latest GS and being made available for the first time in F Sport trim.

In among 3,000 changes, Lexus has introduced its first 'driving mode' system, with Eco, Comfort, Normal, Sport S and Sport S+ featuring in a dial selector design that echoes systems seen on existing big German saloons.

Lexus claims clever new welding techniques and 'four-wheel interlock control' technology have made the LS both more comfortable and better through corners, with a flatter cornering attitude and improved steering.

Additions

F Sport trim is new to the LS, and comes with additions that are aimed at equivalent BMW M Sport models.

The ride height is 10mm lower, Brembo six-piston callipers feature on the front brakes and paddle-shifters with automatic downshift throttle-blipping are standard. Continuing past Lexus form, though, the company claims the new LS is among the quietest and most refined cars in the world, listing comprehensive improvements to wind, road and engine noise insulation.

Just one of the new LS's advancements is in climate control. A system called 'Climate Concierge' uses up to 13 sensors around the cabin to accurately and quickly control the temperature across four interior zones.

Prices and full specs will be confirmed closer to its release date.

Uncle

Died August 12, 2012.

Our lives go on without you but things are not the same, we try to hide our heartache when we say your name.

Sad are the hearts that love you, silent are the tears that fall, knowing you're not there, is the hardest part of all.

The special times we had with you will not return when we were all together, but with the love for you in our hearts, we will remember you forever.

Rest in peace Roy, we will miss you always.

Lots of Love from Jo, Shaun and Jake

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION (SPECIAL EVENTS) ACT 1994
ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED)
THE PARALYMPIC FLAME CELEBRATION
VARIOUS ROADS IN THE COUNTY OF STAFFORDSHIRE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Staffordshire County Council intend not less than seven days from the date of this Notice to make an Order under Section 16(A) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

The effect of the Order will be to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding along, parking, waiting, loading or unloading along those roads as specified in Schedule One and Two that comprise the Paralympic Flame Celebration.

The Order is necessary to facilitate the safe hosting of the Paralympic Flame Celebration and to support the police operation in maintaining the safety of all road users along the route of the event and in associated streets.

Any vehicle being used in connection with the execution of the event; or being used for police, fire brigade or ambulance purpose will be exempt from the restrictions contained in the Order. Blue Badge holders whose vehicles are already parked within the roads specified in Schedule Two and Three at the time that the restriction comes into force will also be exempt but may not proceed along the roads during the restriction period.

The Order will come into effect on Saturday 25th August 2012 and will remain in force until the Paralympic Flame Celebration has ended.

It is anticipated that road closures will be implemented on the roads specified within:
– Schedule One and Two from 10:00hrs until approximately 12:30hrs and,
– Schedule Three between approximately 11:00hrs and 12:30hrs
All road closures will be removed as soon as it is safe to do once the event has concluded.

The Order will not, at any time, prevent access of pedestrians to premises situated on or adjacent to any road to which the order relates, or to any premises only accessible to pedestrians from such a road.

A map showing all of the roads involved may be inspected during normal working hours at the office of the Director of Place & Deputy Chief Executive: Staffordshire County Council, Staffordshire Place No. 1, Tipping Street, Stafford ST16 2LP

Or by email request to: highways@staffordshire.gov.uk

Draw sees Penkridge lose place at summit

Penkridge 201-8, Bridgnorth 189-5. Draw

PENKRIDGE firsts lost top spot in Birmingham League Division Three as they could only claim a losing draw in a tight, rain-affected game at Bridgnorth.

Batting first, Penkridge made slow progress against a well-disciplined Bridgnorth bowling attack.

But good contributions from Alex Watson (54) and Ben Holmes (39) plus a quickfire 30 not out from Mo Hassan led them to a respectable 201-8.

In reply, Bridgnorth had 44 overs to secure the win and looked well on course at the halfway mark.

However, the crucial run out of in-form batsman James Ralph (54) and good bowling from Shafiq Ahmed (2-52), slowed down the run rate.

The match, however, went right to the final ball of the game as Bridgnorth hit a boundary to register the winning draw, finishing on 189-5.

Penkridge 243-9, Smethwick 167-6. Draw

In this Division Two seconds top of the table clash, Penkridge came away with the majority of points but had to settle for a winning draw against leaders Smethwick.

Asked to bat first, Penkridge made a solid start with good contributions from Rich James (52) and Ian Brown (62).

But as wickets fell it was left to Mohammed Shafiq to anchor the innings with a fine 77 not out as Penkridge closed on 243-9.

Smethwick started their reply brightly, but tight bowling from Jon Price (1-35) and Dipesh Patel (2-33) kept them in check.

They eventually settled for a losing draw, finishing on 167-6.

Penkridge 257-4, Penn 164-7. Draw

Penkridge thirds had to settle for a winning draw against Penn.

Penkridge got off to a good start with contributions from Steve Jones (54), youngster Usman Khan (64) and Atta Chishti (52 not out).

Penkridge were able to post an excellent 257-4 off their 50 overs.

In reply, Penn started well but the introduction of Usman Butt (4-54) changed the game.

Penn were forced to settle for a losing draw and closed on 164-7.

Judoka Sophie Cox at Cannock's UTC

Olympic judoka backs camp

A MEMBER of Team GB's Olympic squad dropped in at Cannock before heading back for the London 2012 closing ceremony.

Judo star Sophie Cox, who also competed at Athens in 2004, was one of 20 women at the all-female fight camp at the Ultimate Training Centre in Wolverhampton Road.

Cox, narrowly beaten by the eventual gold medalist Kum Ae An in the under-52k category in London, found time to join the female fighters during the three-day camp, the first of its kind to be held in the UK.

The 30-year-old, from Bacup, Lancashire, said: "I enjoyed the whole Olympic experience but it's something different to be able to share it with all these women in one place."

Martial arts

The camp was led by sports therapist and osteopath Rosi Sexton, who is ranked No.1 in the world at her weight category and is the current world champion MMA fighter.

She had first visited the centre eight years ago from her home in Manchester to spar and train with Cannock's Laura Harbridge.

This time she came back as a coach, passing on her expertise in fighting, sports science, fitness and nutrition.

Sexton, aged 35, said she was happy to be invited back to pass on her knowledge and added she was looking to build on the Olympic legacy of inspiring a generation.

"It's good to get us together in one place to meet up and train," she said. "It's great that women are taking an interest in sport and we are looking forward to more coming through.

UTC has trained some of the world's best fighters over the past 15 years. Jon Roberts, from the centre, said: "The camp was such a hit that it has been re-booked for October and a men's course is also booked.

"It was fantastic that Sophie was prepared to take time out of her busy schedule to support this, then jump back on a train back to London to continue her Olympic duties."

Slack at the back Scholars beaten

King's Lynn 1 Chasetown 0

CHASETOWN lost their league opener when a moment's slackness in defence let King's Lynn in for the only goal of the game.

The winner came in the 66th minute as the Scholars' defence stood and watched Russell Dunkley beat the offside trap to slot past Ryan Price, writes Paul Mullins.

The Scholars had their chances to claim something from the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League Division One South encounter and almost snatched a point in the last minute when Gary Hay had a header saved.

Craig Harris' men had the better of the first half chances. On 20 minutes, home keeper Alex Street produced a fine fingertip save from a Hay drive.

Debutant Nick Wellecomme fired a chance into the side-netting and then forced a low save from Street as the Scholars took early command of the game.

Roared on by a crowd of just under 600, King's Lynn had plenty of possession, but rarely threatened the Scholars' goal, other than from long range.

Fluke

In the 28th minute Dan Quigley looked destined to score, only to be denied by the right boot of Price.

The Scholars almost took the lead with a fluke at the start of the second half. Simon Brown's cross following a short corner deceived everyone and Street scurried back to palm the ball behind.

King's Lynn should have scored in the 57th-minute when Quigley put a free header over the bar. Almost immediately at the other end, he got his head on the ball to deflect a dangerous Mark Branch free-kick wide.

Then Dunkley was given time to pick his spot beyond Price after Ross Watson's precise through ball caught Chasetown square.

A superb tackle from Chris Slater prevented Dunkley adding a second.

With eight minutes left, Chasetown appealed for a penalty when substitute Paul Sullivan was pulled down and Wellecomme put a header just over the bar.

King's Lynn: Street, Watson, Yong, Fryatt, Gulliver, Bunting, Forshaw (Beaumont 68), Quigley, Dunkley, Turner (Spriggs 54), Thurlbourne (Hughes 73).

Chasetown: Price, Farmer (Johnson 14), Branch, Slater, Bate, Teesdale, Westwood, Brown (Sullivan 74), Wellecomme, Hay, Downes (Saunders 61). Subs not used: Richardson, Evans

Batting sinks hopes of county in 34-run defeat

Cambridgeshire 177 and 92, Staffordshire 152 and 83. Cambridgeshire won by 34 runs

STAFFORDSHIRE'S batting let them down as they slipped to a 34-run defeat to Cambridgeshire in the Minor Counties Championship.

The hosts resumed their second innings on 3-0 in pursuit of a small target of 117 they required for victory on the final day at Cannock's Chase Park ground.

West Bromwich Dartmouth batsman Kadeer Ali played patiently at the top of the order as Staffordshire attempted to overhaul the target.

He made 20 from 50 balls and received some support from Tim Maxfield (11).

But the rest of Staffordshire's top order contributed little.

They collapsed from 28-1 to 54-7 with Cambridgeshire spinner Paul McMahon the pick of the visitors' attack with 5-25.

Rallied

Ben McGuire (20) and Greg Willott (14 not out) rallied the lower order but the rest of the Staffordshire batsmen were unable to handle McMahon and paceman Tom Mees, who collected 4-47.

Walsall youngster Josh Bowker was the last man to fall. With the score on 83, the debutant was caught off the bowling of McMahon while Willott finished unbeaten.

The result left Staffordshire in sixth place in the Eastern Division on 53 points, some 37 points off leaders Buckinghamshire.

That's out! Chris Beech takes a fine catch to remove Lewis Bruce

Cannock miss out at finish

Cannock 128-9, Harborne 129-8. Harborne won by two wickets

FOR the third time this season, Cannock lost a close game in the last few deliveries and were left joint third from the bottom of Birmingham League Division Two.

Put in on a slow wicket against accurate bowlers, including former New Zealand Test player Ian Butler, the home side found runs hard to come by.

Only skipper Richie Hewitt (34) and Sean Collings (19) offered resistance in a side missing several senior players.

Defending a modest total of 128, Cannock's bowlers again performed with accuracy and skill. The visitors were reduced to 18-4 and then 74-6 but got home with nine balls to spare.

Mistakes are costly for Hayes

Heath Hayes 1
Stourport Swifts 3

A COUPLE of bad defensive errors cost Hayes dearly in a game they should never have lost against unbeaten Swifts – and the defeat leaves them second from bottom in the Midland Alliance table.

Hayes found it difficult to penetrate a well-organised visitors' defence who played most of the game with 10 men behind the ball but had players with pace to mount penetrating counter-attacks.

Despite having most of the early possession, Hayes found themselves a goal down after 20 minutes when Lewis Pountney evaded four tackles and with the help of a couple of fortunate ricochets was able to plant the ball past helpless debut-making keeper Mark Wiggins.

Hayes drew level 10 minutes later when another debutant, Colby McAdams, set up Peter Bromley to fire home superbly.

They went on to outplay Swifts for the rest of the half and were unlucky when a 20-yard effort from skipper Adam Bromley hit the crossbar with the keeper beaten. Seconds later a diving header from James Parsonage suffered the same fate.

But almost from the restart Hayes conceded a needless corner which they failed to clear – and Pountney stabbed the ball home.

Wiggins then did well to prevent Paul Jones increasing the lead.

But with eight minutes remaining a rare error from Adam Wood allowed Swifts substitute Louis Bridges to run through and put the game to bed.

Clubs up for the new cup

YOUNG footballers have the chance to compete for a new cup. The Stourbridge & District Youth and Girls League have launched an open junior charity challenge cup for any boys and girls teams in the under-11 to under-15 age groups.

It fills the gap left by the demise of the South Staffs Charity Cup a few years ago.

League officials hope to attract teams from throughout the Midlands area.

Pitmen head Eastwood to gain victory

Eastwood Town 0 Hednesford Town 2

HEDNESFORD TOWN were able to make it two wins out of two in the Northern Premier League after defeating Eastwood Town on Tuesday evening, writes Scott Smith.

Manager Rob Smith went with the same starting XI which had kicked the season off in style on Saturday against Frickley Athletic as his Town side looked to pick up a second three-point haul.

But it was the hosts who almost took the lead after just seven minutes when Anthony Griffiths Jnr headed against the bar after the Pitmen failed to clear their lines. As the half wore on, Hednesford came more into the game and thought they had taken the lead in the 40th minute when Neil Harvey superbly headed home from 10 yards only to see his effort ruled out for offside.

The second half saw the Pitmen start on the front foot and they took the lead after just two minutes.

An Elliott Durrell free-kick into the box was punched clear by Eastwood goalkeeper Ian Deakin but only as far as Jamie Osborne who lifted a superb shot into the top corner of the net over a crowd of players. Hednesford continued to press and doubled their lead in the 56th minute.

Right-back John Disney was able to get to the byline and his cross found its way to Durrell, who drilled the ball home clinically off the inside of the post from 10 yards.

Although the home side continued to push forward, they were restricted to half chances as they flashed a couple of efforts across the face of goal and away to safety.

Hednesford almost increased their lead in the 79th minute as Sean O'Connor headed down to Michael Lennon, but the striker slipped just as he was about to shoot and his effort was easily saved.

In the end, two was enough for Hednesford as they prepared for the long trip to Blyth Spartans on Saturday before hosting Stafford Rangers at home on August Bank Holiday Monday (3pm).

Harvey at the double as Hednesford win it

A NEIL HARVEY double saw Hednesford start their Evo-Stik Northern Premier League season against Frickley Athletic with a win.

Pitmen boss Rob Smith described the display against Frickley as "tremendous", writes Lewis Deakin.

He added: "We created about 15 chances and scored three, which is an improvement on last season."

Hednesford Tn 3
Frickley Ath 2

Hednesford began strongly with new recruit Nathan Woolfe whipping in a dangerous ball that Frickley only just managed to clear.

Against the run of play, Frickley struck first on 29 minutes as the Hednesford defence failed to deal with a long ball over the top.

Chris Wood gathered the ball, drove at the Pitmen's defence and his shot, palmed out by goalkeeper Dan Crane, found Jimmy Ghaichem who tapped the ball home to make it 1-0 to the visitors.

Frickley held the lead for only six minutes, as some clever work from Harvey allowed Dave MacPherson to run into the box before he was hacked down.

The referee awarded the penalty and up stepped Elliott Durrell, who slammed home the equaliser.

Hednesford almost took the lead before half-time as Harvey raced clean through but Woodhead blocked with his feet.

The Pitmen started the second-half in equally dominant fashion.

Eventually, Hednesford's hard work paid off as a Rey cross found Harvey, who headed home to make it 2-1 on 50 minutes.

There was good work again from Woolfe, who drilled the ball across forcing the goalkeeper to dive and save.

The winger also had a hand in Hednesford's third as his wicked free-kick found the head of Harvey, who made it 3-1 on 66 minutes.

With 10 minutes to go, Frickley pulled a goal back as a corner dropped kindly to Tom Johnston who scored to make it 3-2.

The Blues then pressed for an equaliser and went close with a 35-yarder.

But the Pitmen held firm to give themselves the perfect start to the season.

Hednesford: Crane, Disney, Campion, Barnes, Francis, MacPherson, Osborne, Durrell, Harvey (O'Connor 77), Rey (Lennon 59), Woolfe (Clarke 73).

Frickley: Woodhead, Yates, Jeffs, Barwick, Hellewell, Johnston, McCormick (Hinsley 59), Bloor, South, Wood, Ghaichem (29).

Full-back Disney in drama of leg breaks

A FULL-BACK who has battled with two broken legs is another of Hednesford Town's summer arrivals tasked with helping the Pitmen achieve promotion.

John Disney, aged 20 realised early on as a schoolboy that football was the career for him, writes Lewis Deakin.

Eventually Disney signed his professional youth contract with Stockport County.

Disaster struck early on in Disney's career as he suffered a serious leg break that kept him out of action from October till April 2011.

The youngster battled back bravely to only suffer another leg break two games into his comeback with Northwich Victoria.

He said: "The broken legs were hard to take especially the second, but with the help of my friends and family I pulled through."

At Northwich Victoria Disney was part of a squad that finished second in the division.

But because of the clubs off field problems Disney was again on the move this time to Hednesford Town.

He said: "I decided to sign for Hednesford as I knew they were a good club."

We'll go far says new boy Barnes

HEDNESFORD TOWN'S summer recruit Sam Barnes believes the Pitmen can go far this season, writes Lewis Deakin.

The centre-back began his career at Liverpool and briefly broke through at Stockport County, making his first team debut against Leyton Orient in April 2010.

His success was to be short-lived as new manager Paul Simpson wanted to bring in more experienced players. The 21-year-old then played alongside his brother Louis at Marine before going to Hednesford.

He said: "I signed for Hednesford because of the ambition of the club once Rob Smith sold his vision for the club to me. It was a no-brainer – I want to be a part of a team that wants to be successful.

"I think we can achieve great things this season but we have to take it game by game."

Rangers game a good test – Durrell

THIS Monday's derby against Stafford Rangers will be a good early test for Hednesford Town, says midfielder Elliott Durrell.

And the Pitmen are keen to give their fans bragging rights over their neighbours.

Two seasons ago, in a pre-season match against Stafford, Durrell endured agony when he suffered a cruciate knee injury, writes Lewis Deakin.

He said: "Unfortunately the match against Stafford two seasons ago will live long in my memory for the wrong reasons.

"As everyone knows, that is the match where I suffered a very serious injury."

But the player does have happy memories of games against Stafford as Hednesford defeated the Boro' in a pre-season tournament.

Durrell said the local rivalry is important to both players and fans.

He said: "We, as players, want to win the key games and the fans expect us to come out on top."

Last season Hednesford completed an astonishing comeback against Stafford, scoring three goals in the final 12 minutes.

Before Monday's game the Pitmen travel to Blyth on Saturday in the league.

Hednesford are keen to deliver promotion after two near-misses – and with victories in their opening two games, Durrell believes they will be in the mix by the end of the season.

"I have no doubt in my mind that we will be right up there challenging for promotion," he said.

NICK GAMBLES TO OPEN THE SCORING

MANAGER Craig Harris' first game in charge at the Scholars Ground saw a victory in the Staffordshire derby.

Plenty of rain prior to kick-off produced a surface that was conducive to neat passing and both sides got the ball down and looked for openings. The visitors tried their luck with long-range efforts from Paul Whalley and Glynn Blackhurst. These would have been meat and drink to keeper Ryan Price in normal conditions, but they fairly zipped off the surface and he did well to keep hold of the ball, writes Paul Mullins.

Chasetown 2 Newcastle Town 0

Chasetown took control of the Evo-Stik Northern League First Division South game on Tuesday.

Their first clear-cut opening arrived when Gary Hay squared to strike partner Nick Wellecomme, who was denied by keeper Dave Parton, spilling the ball into the path of Andy Westwood only to recover to save again.

A Chasetown move of a dozen passes saw Newcastle Town on the back foot, with Mark Branch's eventual cross finding Wellecomme, who curled an effort wide.

Fired

The home side took a deserved lead in the final minute of the first-half.

Jon Richardson, whose last competitive game for The Scholars was in September 2010, swung over an inch-perfect cross from the right. Wellecomme gambled at the near post and fired a volley beyond Parton under pressure from a defender.

Just before the hour, Chasetown went close to a second. Andy Westwood played a neat ball into the path of Simon Brown, only to see his low shot deflected wide off Aaron Carter.

Newcastle had been second best for much of the period since the goal but they had a 15-minute passage when they unfortunate not to equalise.

After a corner was partly cleared, Glynn Blackhurst saw a volley blocked, and his follow-up effort was just wide of Price's right-hand post.

Skipper Richard Teesdale headed just wide with 13 minutes left, following a Brown cross as Chasetown looked to kill the game off.

Blackhurst struck the upright and Harrison went close before Teesdale fired wide after a Branch free-kick was partly cleared.

The three points were finally wrapped up in the 89th minute when substitute Paul Sullivan's partly cleared header fell to Brown. He confidently drove the ball home.

In stoppage time substitute Greg Downes' shot was beaten away by Parton.

Chasetown: Price, Richardson, Branch, Slater, Bate, Teesdale, Westwood, Saunders (Downes, 83 mins), Wellecomme (Sullivan, 88 mins), Hay, Brown. Subs not used: Johnson, Gould, Evans.

Newcastle Town: Parton, Askey, Wint, Bratt, Carter (Sherratt, 88 mins), Whalley, Diskin, Blackhurst, Addagio (Twigg, 64 mins), Thompson, Harrison (Sutton, 83 mins).

Late strikes dim Dynamo

TWO late goals gave Chasetown Reserves a welcome 3-1 home win over Loughborough Dynamo.

Connor Simon put the visitors in front after 12 minutes, but Matthew Jukes equalised seven minutes later. Dynamo keeper Oliver Cragg produced a series of fine saves but Jonathan Gould and Jordan Archer scored late on for the win.

Five-goal Heather put paid to Hayes

Heather St John's 5
Heath Hayes 1

HEATH HAYES succumbed to a heavy Midland Alliance loss, despite taking an early lead.

The home team had enjoyed the best of the early play but were stunned on 18 minutes when Dave Waple struck.

However, the lead lasted just two minutes before Ryan Nash's header put the Saints level.

Hayes keeper Adam Robinson had already distinguished himself twice before the goal to deny Joe Price and Rich Lewis, but was powerless to keep out Nash's effort.

Pressure

And it was Price who put the Saints ahead shortly after the half-hour mark with a strong shot.

Lewis then added a third before the break to leave Hayes with plenty to do in the second period.

In fact it was the home side who continued to take up the running, piling on the pressure as the ground was hit by a violent storm.

On 70 minutes Waldrum killed off the game with his side's fourth goal.

And Hayes' misery was complete 13 minutes from time when Ben Minshull's through ball put Nash away to seal the victory with a fierce left-foot shot.

Hayes did test keeper Peter Maguire on a couple of occasions, but the home side's shot-stopper – who was playing despite a hamstring injury – was equal to their efforts.
